The J. Morey Company, Inc. Welcomes New Director of Loss Control

CYPRESS, CALIFORNIA – August 18, 2022 – The J. Morey Company is excited to announce that Adam Lopez has joined the company as Director of Loss Control. With nearly 20 years of experience in safety, risk management, and loss control, Adam has helped many clients reduce claims & costs, lower ex-mods & frequency rates, and ensure employee safety while keeping companies profitable. He has worked in various industries including the staffing industry, agriculture, insurance (on both broker and carrier sides), aerospace, and food manufacturing.

Throughout his career, Adam has had the unique and distinct privilege of supporting large restaurant chains, grocery markets, municipalities, and retail stores at an international level. His successful and solid track record in creating partnerships, relationships, and collaborations with clients has helped produce exceptional performance and results. Adam's ability to identify gaps, root cause, challenges, areas of opportunity, and training needs, in addition to his commitment to safety and passion for making a difference will make him an extraordinary addition to our company.

Adam Lopez can be contacted at alopez@jmoreyins.com.
