CHRIS BATEMAN

Vice President

EXPERIENCE

Time Value Investments (Seattle, WA, & Idaho Falls, ID)
2017–Current

Chris has helped large public entities completely renovate their investment programs as well as assisted public entities with establishing their first investment programs. Chris uses some of the most sophisticated institutional fixed income tools available in the industry to prepare investment information that he communicates to his clients without resorting to the dreaded “bond-speak.”

Waddell & Reed (Seattle, WA)
2015–2017

Chris provided investment management services to clients with an emphasis on strategic portfolio allocation.

EDUCATION

Seattle University School of Law (Seattle, WA)

After earning his bachelor's degree, Chris continued his education at Seattle University School of Law where he graduated cum laude with a Juris Doctorate degree. While attending Seattle University, Chris also began working in the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney's Office.

Brigham Young University (Provo, UT)

Chris earned his bachelor's degree in philosophy from Brigham Young University, where he served as associate editor for the prestigious “Aporia” student journal of philosophy.
