

2006 LARRY BURKETT AWARD

The Larry Burkett Award

Beginning in the early 1970's, while on the staff of Campus Crusade For Christ, Larry Burkett began to teach the Body of Christ how to apply Biblical wisdom to their every day financial affairs. As founder of Christian Financial Concepts, which later became Crown Financial Ministries, Larry's life and ministry had a tremendous impact, the results of which continue to be experienced today and will benefit many generations to come. He was truly a spiritual giant in his generation.

Early in his ministry, Larry recognized the importance of the professional advisor and the crucial role they play in encouraging the financial decisions of their clients. Larry had a desire to raise up a generation of godly financial professionals that would implement Biblical wisdom into their advice and counsel.

Christian Financial Professionals Network (CFPN) is a product of Larry's work and vision. Beginning as the Christian Financial Planning Institute in 1997, CFPN has grown to over 900 members and is committed to training an army of Christian financial professionals that are passionate about helping their clients manage their financial resources according to God's timeless wisdom.

In recognition and appreciation of Larry's life and ministry and his desire to see a network of Christian financial professionals, CFPN established the Larry Burkett Award.

This award is given annually at the Annual Conference to recognize a Christian financial professional that has demonstrated by their life and work those qualities that epitomize what Larry desired to see in a Christian financial professional:

- An evangelical faith and fervor
- Christian character in its most complete sense
- Unparalleled professional competency
- Integration of Biblical wisdom in all their advice and counsel

Each year, the award reminds everyone connected with CFPN of the debt owed to Larry Burkett for his life and ministry and will motivate each of us live out his vision in our professional lives.
