SERVICES

Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. is a state-registered investment adviser with its principal place of business located in Florida. Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. ("Stronghold Wealth Management" or "Stronghold" or "firm" or "we") began conducting business in 1999.

Listed below are the firm's principal shareholders (i.e., those individuals and/or entities controlling 25% or more of this company).

Keith Downey and Richard Alley.

We sponsor the Stronghold Investment Portfolio Program (the "Program"), a wrap fee program. A wrap fee program is an advisory program under which a specified fee or fees not based directly on transactions in the client's account is charged for advisory services, which may include portfolio management or advice concerning the selection of other investment advisers, and the execution of client transactions.

This Wrap Fee Program Brochure is limited to describing the services, fees, and other necessary information clients should consider prior to becoming a client within the Program. For a complete description of the other services and fees offered by our firm, clients should refer to our Form ADV Part 2: Firm Brochure.

You may obtain a copy of our Firm Disclosure Brochure by contacting Richard Alley at (813)775-7099.

STRONGHOLD INVESTMENT PORTFOLIO PROGRAM

Clients participating in the Stronghold Investment Portfolio Program receive continual advice regarding the investment of their funds based on their individual needs. Through personal discussions in which goals and objectives based on the client's particular circumstances are established, we develop the client's personal investment policy which serves as the basis for managing the client's portfolio. During our data-gathering process, we determine the client's individual objectives, time horizons, risk tolerance, and liquidity needs. We may also review and discuss a client's prior investment history, as well as family composition and background.

As sponsor and investment manager of the Stronghold Investment Portfolio Program, we have designed this program to provide discretionary investment management of a client's portfolio through separately managed accounts. Stronghold will manage the client's portfolio on a discretionary basis, and as such we will have the authority to supervise and direct the portfolio without prior consultation with the client.

Types of Securities: As appropriate to the needs of the client, Stronghold will invest in any equities, mutual funds, ETFs, bonds and various other securities and investment products as necessary and suitable to the individual needs of the client. Stronghold does not limit its advice to specific investments or investment strategies. Clients may impose reasonable restrictions on investing in certain securities, types of securities, or industry sectors.

Account supervision is guided by the client's stated objectives (i.e., maximum capital appreciation, growth, income, or growth and income), as well as tax considerations.

FEES

Fee: Clients pay an asset-based fee that covers the services provided by Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. The maximum annual fee rate for our services in the Program is 2.00%. Subject to this maximum, the applicable fee rate applicable to the assets in an account is based upon total assets managed for the client household. This Program poses a significant conflict of interest for Stronghold since it presents a disincentive for our firm to trade securities in the client account.

The annualized fee for portfolio management services is charged as a percentage of assets under management per the below fee schedule:

BILLABLE ASSETS	FEE PERCENTAGE
$15,000,000 AND UP	0.25% - .55%
$10,000,000 - $14,999,999	0.60%
$8,000,000 - $9,999,999	0.70%
$6,000,000 - $7,999,999	0.75%
$3,000,000 - $5,999,999	0.80%
$1,000,000 - $2,999,999	0.90%
$750,000 - $999,999	1.00%
$500,000 - $749,999	1.15%
$250,000 - $499,000	1.25%
$100,000 - $249,000	1.35%
UP TO $99,999	1.40% - 2.00%

How are Fees Charged? Program fees are charged monthly in advance. If management begins after the start of a monthly billing period, Program fees will be prorated accordingly. When authorized by the client, fees will be debited from the account in accordance with the terms set forth in the Investment Management Agreement ("IMA").

What services are covered by the Program fees? The Program fees pay for our firm's advisory services to clients under the Program, administrative expenses of the Program, custody charges for clients' assets custodied at Charles Schwab Advisor Services a division of Charles Schwab & Company, Inc. and brokerage services for Program accounts to the extent trades are conducted through Charles Schwab Advisor Services.

What services are not covered by the Program fees? The Program fees do not cover brokerage to the extent trades are conducted through brokers or dealers other than Charles Schwab Advisor Services and custody charges if client assets are custodied anywhere other than Charles Schwab Advisor Services. The Program fees do not include expenses of mutual funds and exchange traded funds such as fund management fees charged to each fund's investors.

Other Fees and Expenses. Clients may incur charges for other account services provided not directly related to the execution and clearing of transactions, including, but not limited to, IRA custodial fees, wire transfer fees, interest charges on margin loans.

Additional Information about Program fees. Under the Program, the participant receives investment advisory services, the execution of securities brokerage transactions, custody and reporting services for a single specified Program Fee. Clients are cautioned that depending on the level of fees charged by the executing broker-dealer, and the amount of portfolio activity in the clients' account, the value of the services provided under this Program may exceed the total cost of such services had they been provided separately. In addition, the Program Fee may be higher or lower than that charged by other sponsors of comparable wrap fee programs.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Termination of the Advisory Relationship: A client agreement may be canceled at any time, by either party, for any reason upon receipt of 30 days written notice. Upon termination of any account, any prepaid, unearned fees will be promptly refunded. The client has the right to terminate an agreement without penalty within five business days after entering into the agreement.

Mutual Fund Fees: All fees paid to Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds and/or ETFs to their shareholders. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. These fees will generally include a management fee, other fund expenses, and a possible distribution fee. If the fund also imposes sales charges, a client may pay an initial or deferred sales charge. A client could invest in a mutual fund directly, without our services. In that case, the client would not receive the services provided by our firm which are designed, among other things, to assist the client in determining which mutual fund or funds are most appropriate to each client's financial condition and objectives.. Accordingly, the client should review both the fees charged by the funds and our fees to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the client and to thereby evaluate the advisory services being provided.

Exchange-Traded Funds. Shares of ETFs held in client accounts are bought and sold on an exchange and not, like mutual funds, directly from the fund itself. The price of ETF shares fluctuates in accordance with changes in the net asset value (NAV) per share, as well as in response to market supply and demand. Accordingly, ETF shares may trade at a price which differs from NAV per share of the ETF.

Grandfathering of Minimum Account Requirements: Pre-existing advisory clients are subject to Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. minimum account requirements and advisory fees in effect at the time the client entered into the advisory relationship. Therefore, our firm's minimum account requirements will differ among clients.

ERISA Accounts: Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. is deemed to be a fiduciary to advisory clients that are employee benefit plans or individual retirement accounts (IRAs) pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income and Securities Act ("ERISA"), and regulations under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code"), respectively. As such, our firm is subject to specific duties and obligations under ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code that include among other things, restrictions concerning certain forms of compensation. To avoid engaging in prohibited transactions, Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. may only charge fees for investment advice about products for which our firm and/or our related persons do not receive any commissions or 12b-1 fees, or conversely, investment advice about products for which our firm and/or our related persons receive commissions or 12b-1 fees, however, only when such fees are used to offset Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC.'s advisory fees.

Advisory Fees in General: Clients should note that similar advisory services may be available from other registered investment advisers for similar or lower fees.

Limited Prepayment of Fees: Under no circumstances do we require or solicit payment of fees in excess of $500 more than six months in advance of services rendered.

Item 5 Account Requirements and Types of Clients

MINIMUM ACCOUNT REQUIREMENTS

Participation in this program is subject to certain minimum account requirements. For a more detailed understanding of these requirements, please review the disclosures provided in the preceding section.

Minimum account sizes are $500,000.

As a condition for program participation, clients are required to direct us to custody their assets with and to place trades through Charles Schwab Advisor Services, a division of Charles Schwab & Company, Inc. Charles Schwab & Company, Inc. is an unaffiliated FINRA-member broker dealer and the clearing firm and custodian that we use for brokerage accounts. Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. has negotiated an arrangement with Charles Schwab Advisor Services to provide custodial and brokerage services as part of the Stronghold Investment Portfolio Program. As such, we reserve the right to decline acceptance of any client account for which the client directs the use of a broker dealer/custodian other than Charles Schwab Advisor Services. Please refer to the "Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations" section of Item 9 for additional information.

TYPES OF CLIENTS

Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. provides advisory services in the Stronghold Investment Portfolio Program, where appropriate, to:

- Individuals
- Trusts
- Estates
- Corporations
- Charitable Organizations
- Partnerships

Item 6 Portfolio Manager Selection and Evaluation

PORTFOLIO MANAGER SELECTION

As previously disclosed, all participating clients' assets are managed by advisory personnel of our firm. These individuals must possess, minimally, a college degree and/or appropriate business experience and all required licenses. Please refer to Item 4 for detailed disclosures regarding the portfolio management services we provide to program clients.

AFFILIATED PORTFOLIO MANAGERS

As previously disclosed, all client assets in this program are managed by our portfolio managers. Please refer to Item 4 for a detailed description of the Program's services and fees.

PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES

Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. does not charge performance-based fees (i.e., fees based on a share of capital gains or capital appreciation of the client's assets).

METHODS OF ANALYSIS

We use the following methods of analysis in formulating our investment advice and/or managing client assets:

Charting. In this type of technical analysis, we review charts of market and security activity in an attempt to identify when the market is moving up or down and to predict how long the trend may last and when that trend might reverse.

Fundamental Analysis. We attempt to measure the intrinsic value of a security by looking at economic and financial factors (including the overall economy, industry conditions, and the financial condition and management of the company itself) to determine if the company is underpriced (indicating it may be a good time to buy) or overpriced (indicating it may be time to sell).

Fundamental analysis does not attempt to anticipate market movements. This presents a potential risk, as the price of a security can move up or down along with the overall market regardless of the economic and financial factors considered in evaluating the stock.

Technical Analysis. We analyze past market movements and apply that analysis to the present in an attempt to recognize recurring patterns of investor behavior and potentially predict future price movement.

Technical analysis does not consider the underlying financial condition of a company. This presents a risk in that a poorly-managed or financially unsound company may underperform regardless of market movement.

Mutual Fund and/or ETF Analysis. We look at the experience and track record of the manager of the mutual fund or ETF in an attempt to determine if that manager has demonstrated an ability to invest over a period of time and in different economic conditions. We also look at the underlying assets in a mutual fund or ETF in an attempt to determine if there is significant overlap in the underlying investments held in another fund(s) in the client's portfolio. We also monitor the funds or ETFs in an attempt to determine if they are continuing to follow their stated investment strategy.

A risk of mutual fund and/or ETF analysis is that, as in all securities investments, past performance does not guarantee future results. A manager who has been successful may not be able to replicate that success in the future. In addition, as we do not control the underlying investments in a fund or ETF, managers of different funds held by the client may purchase the same security, increasing the risk to the client if that security were to fall in value. There is also a risk that a manager may deviate from the stated investment mandate or strategy of the fund or ETF, which could make the holding(s) less suitable for the client's portfolio.

Risks for all forms of analysis. Our securities analysis methods rely on the assumption that the companies whose securities we purchase and sell, the rating agencies that review these securities, and other publicly-available sources of information about these securities, are providing accurate and unbiased data. While we are alert to indications that data may be incorrect, there is always a risk that our analysis may be compromised by inaccurate or misleading information.

INVESTMENT STRATEGIES

We use the following strategy(ies) in managing client accounts, provided that such strategy(ies) are appropriate to the needs of the client and consistent with the client's investment objectives, risk tolerance, and time horizons, among other considerations:

Long-term purchases. We purchase securities with the idea of holding them in the client's account for a year or longer. Typically, we employ this strategy when:

- we believe the securities to be currently undervalued, and/or
- we want exposure to a particular asset class over time, regardless of the current projection for this class.

A risk in a long-term purchase strategy is that by holding the security for this length of time, we may not take advantage of short-term gains that could be profitable to a client. Moreover, if our predictions are incorrect, a security may decline sharply in value before we make the decision to sell.

Short-term purchases. When utilizing this strategy, we purchase securities with the idea of selling them within a relatively short time (typically a year or less). We do this in an attempt to take advantage of conditions that we believe will soon result in a price swing in the securities we purchase.

A short-term purchase strategy poses risks should the anticipated price swing not materialize; we are then left with the option of having a long-term investment in a security that was designed to be a short-term purchase, or potentially taking a loss. In addition, this strategy involves more frequent trading than does a longer-term strategy and will result in increased brokerage and other transaction-related costs, as well as less favorable tax treatment of short-term capital gains.

Trading. We purchase securities with the idea of selling them very quickly (typically within 30 days or less). We do this in an attempt to take advantage of our predictions of brief price swings.

Risk of Loss. Clients should understand that investing in any securities, including mutual funds, involves a risk of loss of both income and principal.

VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

As a matter of firm policy, we do not vote proxies on behalf of clients. Therefore, although our firm may provide investment advisory services relative to client investment assets, clients maintain exclusive responsibility for: (1) directing the manner in which proxies solicited by issuers of securities beneficially owned by the client shall be voted, and (2) making all elections relative to any mergers, acquisitions, tender offers, bankruptcy proceedings or other type events pertaining to the client's investment assets. Clients are responsible for instructing each custodian of the assets, to forward to the client copies of all proxies and shareholder communications relating to the client's investment assets.

We do not offer any consulting assistance regarding proxy issues to clients.

Item 7 Client Information Provided to Portfolio Managers

Individuals affiliated with our firm are responsible for developing an initial financial profile of the prospective client. Prior to opening an account, we assist in determining a participant's profile for the Program by obtaining from the participant appropriate information (i.e., investment objectives, risk tolerance, time horizon, and any reasonable restrictions the client wishes to impose upon the management of the account). Initial investment strategy is jointly determined based on an assessment of the information provided by the client.

While we provide the client with periodic reminders, it remains the client's responsibility to advise us of any changes to the information previously provided that might impact the ongoing suitability of any prior determined investment strategy(ies) and/or objectives. We will promptly communicate any reported changes to the client's portfolio manager.

Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. investment adviser representative will directly contact each wrap fee program client at least annually to verify that there has been no change in the client's financial circumstances and/or investment objectives and determine whether the client wishes to impose any reasonable restrictions on the management of the account(s). Any such changes or requests are communicated in writing to the client's portfolio manager, who is responsible for implementing appropriate adjustments to the client's portfolio.

Item 8 Client Contact With Portfolio Managers

The client's account representative is available to discuss the management and performance of the client's account and changes in the client's situation which may have an impact on the management of the client's account.

Item 9 Additional Information

Disciplinary Information

We are required to disclose any legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of our advisory business or the integrity of our management.

Our firm and our management personnel have no reportable disciplinary events to disclose.

Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Keith Downey and Richard Alley are associated with an independent insurance agency and are individually licensed as insurance agents. Richard Alley is licensed as an insurance agent for Richard Alley insurance agency. Mr. Downey and Mr. Alley, in this separate capacity, are able to receive separate, yet customary commission compensation resulting from implementing insurance product transactions on behalf of advisory clients. Stronghold clients, however, are not under any obligation to engage Mr. Downey or Mr. Alley when considering implementation of insurance-related advisory recommendations. The implementation of any or all recommendations is solely at the discretion of the client.

Stronghold Wealth Management endeavors at all times to put the interest of its clients first as part of our fiduciary duty as a registered investment adviser; we take the following steps to address any possible conflict of interest:

- we disclose to clients the existence of all material conflicts of interest, including the potential for our firm and our employees to earn compensation from advisory clients in addition to our firm's advisory fees;
- we disclose to clients that they are not obligated to purchase recommended investment products from our employees or affiliated companies;
- we collect, maintain and document accurate, complete and relevant client background information, including the client's financial goals, objectives and risk tolerance;
 - our firm's management conducts regular reviews of each client account to verify that all recommendations made to a client are suitable to the client's needs and circumstances;
- we require that our employees seek prior approval of any outside employment activity so that we may ensure that any conflicts of interests in such activities are properly addressed;
- we periodically monitor these outside employment activities to verify that any conflicts of interest continue to be properly addressed by our firm; and
- we educate our employees regarding the responsibilities of a fiduciary, including the need for having a reasonable and independent basis for the investment advice provided to clients. As previously disclosed, clients are required to direct us to custody their assets with and to place trades through Charles Schwab Advisor Services, a division of Charles Schwab & Company, Inc. as a condition for participation in the Stronghold Investment Portfolio Program. Charles Schwab & Company, Inc. is an unaffiliated FINRA-member broker dealer and the clearing firm and custodian that we use for brokerage accounts. Our firm has evaluated Charles Schwab Advisor Services and believes that it will provide our clients with a blend of execution services, commission costs, and professionalism that will assist us in meeting our fiduciary obligations to clients.

In evaluating such an arrangement, the client should recognize that brokerage commissions for the execution of transactions in the client's account are not negotiated by Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. on a trade-by-trade basis, and best execution may not be achieved. In addition, as noted above in Item 4, transactions in the client's account are effected "net" (i.e., without separate commission charge to the client) and a portion of the wrap fee is generally considered as being in lieu of commissions. Not all advisers require clients to direct it to use a particular broker dealer, though the sponsors of wrap fee programs typically do.

Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Our firm has adopted a Code of Ethics which sets forth high ethical standards of business conduct that we require of our employees, including compliance with applicable federal securities laws.

Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. and our personnel owe a duty of loyalty, fairness and good faith towards our clients, and have an obligation to adhere not only to the specific provisions of the Code of Ethics but to the general principles that guide the Code.

Our Code of Ethics includes policies and procedures for the review of quarterly securities transactions reports as well as initial and annual securities holdings reports that must be submitted by the firm's access persons. Among other things, our Code of Ethics also requires the prior approval of any acquisition of securities in a limited offering (e.g., private placement) or an initial public offering. Our code also provides for oversight, enforcement and recordkeeping provisions.

Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. Code of Ethics further includes the firm's policy prohibiting the use of material non-public information. While we do not believe that we have any particular access to non-public information, all employees are reminded that such information may not be used in a personal or professional capacity.

A copy of our Code of Ethics is available to our advisory clients and prospective clients. You may request a copy by email sent to ralley@strwealth.com, or by calling us at 813-775-7099.

Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. and individuals associated with our firm are prohibited from engaging in principal transactions.

Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. and individuals associated with our firm are prohibited from engaging in agency cross transactions.

Our Code of Ethics is designed to assure that the personal securities transactions, activities and interests of our employees will not interfere with (i) making decisions in the best interest of advisory clients and (ii) implementing such decisions while, at the same time, allowing employees to invest for their own accounts.

Our firm and/or individuals associated with our firm may buy or sell for their personal accounts securities identical to or different from those recommended to our clients. In addition, any related person(s) may have an interest or position in a certain security(ies) which may also be recommended to a client.

It is the expressed policy of our firm that no person employed by us may purchase or sell any security prior to a transaction(s) being implemented for an advisory account, thereby preventing such employee(s) from benefiting from transactions placed on behalf of advisory accounts.

We may aggregate our employee trades with client transactions where possible and when compliant with our duty to seek best execution for our clients. In these instances, participating clients will receive an average share price and transaction costs will be shared equally and on a pro-rata basis. In the instances where there is a partial fill of a particular batched order, we will allocate all purchases pro-rata, with each account paying the average price. Our employee accounts will be excluded in the pro-rata allocation.

As these situations represent actual or potential conflicts of interest to our clients, we have established the following policies and procedures for implementing our firm's Code of Ethics, to ensure our firm complies with its regulatory obligations and provides our clients and potential clients with full and fair disclosure of such conflicts of interest:

1. No principal or employee of our firm may put his or her own interest above the interest of an advisory client.
2. No principal or employee of our firm may buy or sell securities for their personal portfolio(s) where their decision is a result of information received as a result of his or her employment unless the information is also available to the investing public.
3. It is the expressed policy of our firm that no person employed by us may purchase or sell any security prior to a transaction(s) being implemented for an advisory account. This prevents such employees from benefiting from transactions placed on behalf of advisory accounts.
4. Our firm requires prior approval for any IPO or private placement investments by related persons of the firm.
5. We maintain a list of all reportable securities holdings for our firm and anyone associated with this advisory practice that has access to advisory recommendations ("access person"). These holdings are reviewed on a regular basis by our firm's Chief Compliance Officer or his/her designee.
6. We have established procedures for the maintenance of all required books and records.
7. All of our principals and employees must act in accordance with all applicable Federal and State regulations governing registered investment advisory practices.
8. We require delivery and acknowledgement of the Code of Ethics by each supervised person of our firm.
9. We have established policies requiring the reporting of Code of Ethics violations to our senior management.
10. Any individual who violates any of the above restrictions may be subject to termination.

Review of Accounts

Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. reviews client accounts no less often than quarterly. More frequent reviews may be triggered in the event of changes in management style or fund closures. Account reviews are conducted by Keith Downey and Richard Alley, Portfolio Managers of our Firm.

At least annually, we meet with the client (either in person or over the phone) to review and update, as necessary, the client's investment profile. However, should there be any material change in the client's personal and/or financial situation, we should be notified immediately to determine whether any review and/or revision of the client's investment profile is warranted.

All clients receive account statements from their custodian on at least a quarterly basis. Additionally, we provide clients with periodic performance measurement summary reports, on a quarterly basis.

Client Referrals and Other Compensation

It is Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. policy not to accept or allow our related persons to accept any form of compensation, including cash, sales awards or other prizes, from a non-client in conjunction with the advisory services we provide to our clients.

Financial Information

As an advisory firm that maintains discretionary authority for client accounts, we are also required to disclose any financial condition that is reasonably likely to impair our ability to meet our contractual obligations. Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. has no additional financial circumstances to report.

Under no circumstances do we require or solicit payment of fees in excess of $500 per client more than six months in advance of services rendered. Therefore, we are not required to include a financial statement.

Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition at any time during the past ten years.

Item 10 Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

As previously disclosed, neither Stronghold Wealth Management, LLC. nor our management personnel have a relationship or arrangement with any issuer of securities.
