OUR CONTINUING PRIVACY COMMITMENT TO YOU

As you may be aware, federal privacy laws require that we explain to you how we handle "nonpublic personal information." This is information that in the course of our relationship with you, we receive or develop about you. It includes (1) information you provide to us orally or on applications or other forms, and (2) information we develop about you in the course of providing our services to you, such as the amount and type of your assets that we manage and transactions we place on your behalf.

As a general rule, we do not disclose this private information to others. As you might imagine, however, we rely on certain third parties for services that are necessary to enable us to provide our investment services to you. These may include our attorneys, auditors, software vendors, prime brokers, custodians, and other entities who, in the ordinary course of providing their services to us, may require access to information containing your nonpublic personal information. In addition, we may disclose your nonpublic personal information to others with your consent, where required by law or judicial process (such as a court order), or otherwise to the extent permitted under the federal privacy laws.

We also restrict access to your nonpublic personal information among our own personnel. Only those who need the information in order to help us provide investment advisory services to you have access. It is our policy that, service providers we use are bound by duties of confidentiality (e.g., attorneys and auditors), and we require contractual assurance that they will maintain the confidentiality of any of your information they obtain. We also maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your non-public personal information.

If you have any questions about our practices with respect to your nonpublic personal information, you may contact us by e-mail, telephone, or mail at the following:
