Professional Designation

Scott R. Jewett holds the professional designation of CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (“CFP®”).

The CFP® certification is a financial planning credential awarded by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. (the “CFP Board”) to individuals who meet its education, examination, experience and ethics requirements. Eligible candidates are generally required to have three years of financial planning related experience and possess a bachelor’s degree from an accredited U.S. college or university. Certificants are further required to complete a CFP Board-Registered Education Program (or possess a qualifying professional credential), clear a personal and professional background check, and pass the CFP® Certification Examination, a ten-hour multiple choice exam divided into three separate sessions. In order to maintain the certification, CFP® designees must also complete at least 30 hours of continuing education every two years on an ongoing basis.

For additional information about this credential, please refer directly to the website of the issuing organization.

Item 3. Disciplinary Information

MJFG is required to disclose information regarding any legal or disciplinary events material to a client’s evaluation of Scott R. Jewett. MJFG has no information to disclose in relation to this Item.

Item 4. Other Business Activities

MJFG is required to disclose information regarding any investment-related business or occupation in which Scott R. Jewett is actively engaged.

Registered Representative of a Broker-Dealer

Scott R. Jewett is a registered representative of Mutual Securities, Inc. (“Mutual Securities”), an SEC registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA. In this capacity, Scott R. Jewett may provide securities brokerage services and implement securities transactions under a commission based arrangement. Scott R. Jewett may be entitled to a portion of the brokerage commissions paid to Mutual Securities, as well as a share of any ongoing distribution or service (“trail”) fees from the sale of mutual funds.

A conflict of interest exists to the extent that Scott R. Jewett recommends the purchase of securities where he receives commissions or other additional compensation as a result. This practice may give him an incentive to recommend investment products based on compensation received rather than on the client’s needs. MJFG has procedures in place to ensure that all recommendations are made in the best interests of clients regardless of any additional compensation earned. For certain accounts covered by ERISA (and such others that the firm deems appropriate), MJFG provides investment advisory services on a fee offset basis, whereby the firm reduces its fee by an amount equal to the aggregate commissions and 12b-1 fees earned by Scott R. Jewett in his individual capacity as a registered representative of Mutual Securities.

Licensed Insurance Agent

Scott R. Jewett is a licensed insurance agent and in such capacity may recommend, on a fully-disclosed commission basis, the purchase of certain insurance products. A conflict of interest exists to the extent that MJFG recommends the purchase of insurance products where Scott R. Jewett receives insurance commissions or other additional compensation. MJFG seeks to ensure that all recommendations are made in the best interests of clients regardless of any additional compensation earned.

Item 5. Additional Compensation

MJFG is required to disclose information regarding any arrangement under which Scott R. Jewett receives an economic benefit from someone other than a client for providing investment advisory services. MJFG has no information to disclose in relation to this Item.

Item 6. Supervision

Scott R. Jewett is the Chief Compliance Officer of MJFG and is generally responsible for his own supervision. Scott R. Jewett seeks to ensure that investments are suitable for his individual clients and consistent with their individual needs, goals, objectives and risk tolerance, as well as any restrictions requested by MJFG’s clients.
