

Meet your

Philadelphia 2009 FIVE STAR Wealth Managers.

We surveyed consumers, financial service professionals and Philadelphia Magazine subscribers to find wealth managers in the Philadelphia area who scored highest in overall client satisfaction. Here they are.

Well over half of the consumer responses in the Philadelphia area indicated it is difficult to find a wealth manager they trust and rely on.⁽¹⁾ Wealth managers, broadly defined, are those individuals who help you manage your financial world and/or implement aspects of your financial strategies. Common examples of wealth managers are financial advisors, life insurance agents, accountants, tax advisors, attorneys, etc.

With more than 15,000 wealth managers in the Philadelphia area, how do you find someone who listens to you, represents your interests and operates with an emphasis on integrity and service? Philadelphia Magazine can help. The magazine recently formed a partnership with Crescendo Business Services, an independent research firm, to find out which wealth managers successfully satisfied key client satisfaction criteria and overall scored the highest in client satisfaction.

The Selection Process

In March, Crescendo surveyed, by mail and phone, 95,000 high-net-worth residents in the Philadelphia area and subscribers of Philadelphia Magazine. An additional 6,500 surveys were sent to financial services industry professionals.

On the surveys, recipients were asked to evaluate only wealth managers whom they knew through personal experience, and to evaluate them based upon nine criteria: customer service, integrity, knowledge/expertise, communication, value for fee charged, meeting of financial objectives, post-sale service, quality of recommendations and overall satisfaction.

Only original surveys—no copies—returned in their specially designed envelopes were accepted as valid. By April, stacks of surveys had arrived and Crescendo began carefully scoring each wealth manager. Both positive and negative evaluations were included in the scoring. Only wealth managers with five years of experience in the financial services industry were considered.

Next, each wealth manager was reviewed for regulatory actions, civil judicial actions and customer complaints as reported by FINRA (the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority) and other regulatory agencies.

Then, before finalizing the list, wealth managers were reviewed by a blue-ribbon panel. The blue-ribbon panel was comprised of individuals from within the financial services industry. Although panelist comments were incorporated into the final score, safeguards were built into the review process to reduce the ability of panel members to influence the composition of the final list on the basis of company affiliation.

An Elite Award

The resulting list of 2009 FIVE STAR Wealth Managers is an elite group, representing less than 4 percent of the wealth managers in the Philadelphia area. Only 582 of the top-scoring wealth managers made this year's list. To make the list more user-friendly, wealth managers have been grouped based upon their primary financial service. Each wealth manager has also listed up to three additional financial services that they provide their clients.

Although this list will certainly be a useful tool for anyone looking for help in managing their financial world or implementing aspects of their financial strategies, it should not be considered exhaustive. Undoubtedly, there are many other excellent wealth managers who, for one reason or another, are not on this year's list.
