BRIAN MAHONEY JOINS SAGEVIEW ADVISORY GROUP'S BOSTON TEAM

IRVINE (February 11, 2019) – Brian Mahoney joined SageView Advisory Group, one of the leading independent retirement plan advisory firms in the nation, as a Retirement Plan Consultant in their Boston, MA office on January 14, 2019.

Brian brings 20 years of retirement benefit experience, both in recordkeeping and as a plan sponsor, to a very deep Boston team. Brian graduated from Saint Anselm College in 1999 and joined MFS as a retirement plan administrator. In 2011, he became the Retirement Plan Administrator for Boston Children's Hospital, overseeing their fund line-up consolidation amongst other projects, before returning to MassMutual as a consultant on their Regulatory Advisory Services team in 2015.

"Helping plan sponsors achieve their goals while being a part of a strong team is what drew me to SageView. The resources and the way they support plan sponsors is similar to my own approach." said Brian.

Brian joins a team led by Stephen Popper and includes Mark Forkey, Erica Washburn, Mark Foster, Kerrie Casey and Linda Gallinaro. The Boston team supports 78 client relationships with more than $12 billion in assets under advisement in both 401(k) and 403(b) plans, defined benefit and non-qualified plans.

SageView Founder and CEO Randy Long commented, "Brian's industry and regulatory knowledge is a staple of how we help our clients be more successful. With HR and Benefits teams leaning on us for more consulting work, bringing on a former plan sponsor with a retirement industry background is a welcome addition. We are thrilled to have Brian on board."
