Item 2 – Material Changes

Form ADV 2 is divided into two parts: Part 2A (the "Disclosure Brochure") and Part 2B (the "Brochure Supplement"). The Disclosure Brochure provides information about a variety of topics relating to an Advisor's business practices and conflicts of interest. The Brochure Supplement provides information about advisory personnel of Continuum.

Continuum believes that communication and transparency are the foundation of its relationship with Clients and will continually strive to provide its Clients with complete and accurate information at all times. Continuum encourages all current and prospective Clients to read this Disclosure Brochure and discuss any questions you may have with us. And of course, we always welcome your feedback.

Material Changes

There have been changes to this Disclosure Brochure that we are required to disclose to Clients. These material changes include:

- Timothy Smith has replaced Stephen Cutting-Miller as Chief Compliance Officer ("CCO") of the Advisor.
- Continuum provides financial planning services as a part of its comprehensive wealth management services. Please see Item 4.B for additional details.

Future Changes

From time to time, we may amend this Disclosure Brochure to reflect changes in our business practices, changes in regulations and routine annual updates as required by the securities regulators. This complete Disclosure Brochure or a Summary of Material Changes shall be provided to each Client annually and if a material change occurs in the business practices of Continuum.

At any time, you may view the current Disclosure Brochure on-line at the SEC's Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov by searching with our firm name or our CRD# 152895. You may also request a copy of this Disclosure Brochure at any time, by contacting us at (518) 583-4050 or by email at info@contwealth.com.

Item 4 – Advisory Services

A. Firm Information

Continuum Wealth Advisors, LLC (“Continuum” or the “Advisor”) is a registered investment advisor with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), which is organized as a Limited Liability Company (“LLC”) under the laws of the State of New York. Continuum was founded in 2010, and is owned and operated by Timothy Smith (CEO and CCO). This Disclosure Brochure provides information regarding the qualifications, business practices, and the advisory services provided by Continuum.

B. Advisory Services Offered

Continuum offers investment advisory services to individuals, high net worth individuals, trusts, estates, retirement plans, charitable organizations, and businesses in New York and other states (each referred to as a “Client”).

Wealth Management Services

Continuum may provide Clients with wealth management services, which generally includes a broad range of comprehensive financial planning services in connection with discretionary management of investment portfolios. These services are described below.

Investment Management Services

Continuum provides customized investment advisory solutions for its Clients. This is achieved through continuous personal Client contact and interaction while providing discretionary or non-discretionary investment management and related advisory services. Continuum works with each Client to identify their investment goals and objectives as well as risk tolerance and financial situation in order to create a portfolio strategy. Continuum will then construct a portfolio primarily consisting of mutual funds, exchange-traded funds (“ETFs”), individual debt and equity securities, and/or independent investment managers (“Independent Managers”) to achieve the Client’s investment goals.

Continuum’s investment strategy is primarily long-term focused, but the Advisor may buy, sell or re-allocate positions that have been held less than one year to meet the objectives of the Client or due to market conditions. Continuum will construct, implement and monitor the portfolio to ensure it meets the goals, objectives, circumstances, and risk tolerance agreed to by the Client. Each Client will have the opportunity to place reasonable restrictions on the types of investments to be held in their respective portfolio, subject to acceptance by the Advisor.

Continuum evaluates and selects investments for inclusion in Client portfolios only after applying its internal due diligence process. Continuum may recommend, on occasion, redistributing investment allocations to diversify the portfolio. Continuum may recommend specific positions to increase sector or asset class weightings. The Advisor may recommend employing cash positions as a possible hedge against market movement. Continuum may recommend selling positions for reasons that include, but are not limited to, harvesting capital gains or losses, business or sector risk exposure to a specific security or class of securities, overvaluation or overweighting of the position[s] in the portfolio, change in risk tolerance of Client, generating cash to meet Client needs, or any risk deemed unacceptable for the Client’s risk tolerance.

Continuum will provide wealth management and related services. At no time will Continuum accept or maintain custody of a Client’s funds or securities, except for authorized deduction of the Advisor’s fees. All Client assets will be managed within their designated account[s] at the Custodian, pursuant to the Client investment advisory agreement.

Financial Planning

Continuum will typically provide a variety of financial planning services to Clients as a part of its wealth management services. Financial plans are offered in several areas of a Client’s financial situation, depending on their goals, objectives and financial situation.

Generally, such financial planning services involve preparing a formal financial plan or rendering a specific financial consultation based on the Client's financial goals and objectives. This planning may encompass one or more areas of need, including but not limited to, investment planning, retirement planning, personal savings, education savings, insurance, and other areas of a Client's financial situation.

A financial plan developed for the Client will usually include general recommendations for a course of activity or specific actions to be taken by the Client. For example, recommendations may be made that the Client start or revise their investment programs, commence or alter retirement savings, establish education savings and/or charitable giving programs. Continuum may also refer Clients to an accountant, attorney or another specialist, as appropriate for their unique situation. For certain financial planning engagements, the Advisor will provide a written summary of Client's financial situation, observations, and recommendations.

Financial planning recommendations may pose a conflict between the interests of the Advisor and the interests of the Client. For example, a recommendation to engage the Advisor for investment management services or to increase the level of investment assets with the Advisor would pose a conflict, as it would increase the advisory fees paid to the Advisor. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendations made by the Advisor or maintain an ongoing relationship with the Advisor. If the Client elects to act on any of the recommendations made by the Advisor, the Client is under no obligation to execute the transaction through the Advisor.

401(k) and Profit Sharing Plan Platform

Continuum will provide fiduciary and non-fiduciary services to plans. Continuum will work with plan sponsors and third party administrators to ensure that the objectives for the plan participants are achieved. Non-discretionary investment advice regarding asset classes and investment alternatives available for the plan will be provided to the plan sponsor in accordance with the plan's investment policies and objectives. However, it is up to the plan sponsor to make the final decisions regarding the initial selection, retention, removal and/or addition of investment options.

On a participant level, Continuum will assist in group enrollment meetings designed to increase retirement plan participation, as well as, conduct investment educational meetings to aid in the financial understanding by the employees. At least annually, individualized consulting will be provided to existing plan participants to discuss retirement goals and recommendations for ongoing investment allocations. Continuum acts as the client relationship manager for plan participants, providing information and answering questions including, but not limited to, account balances, loans, beneficiary designations and rollovers. They act as the liaison, when needed, with the third party administrator.

Use of Independent Managers

Continuum may recommend to Clients that all or a portion of their portfolio be implemented by utilizing one or more unaffiliated money managers (herein "Independent Manager[s]"). The terms and agreements with the Independent Manager[s] will differ and are set forth in the agreement[s] with those manager[s]. The Independent Manager[s] will have investment discretion over the Client's account[s], but may allow the Client to impose reasonable investment restrictions. The Advisor will assist and advise the Client in establishing investment objectives for their account[s], the selection of the Independent Manager[s], and defining any restrictions on the account[s]. Continuum will continue to provide oversight of the Client's account[s] and ongoing monitoring of the activities of the Independent Manager[s].

Continuum does not receive any compensation from these Independent Manager[s], other than Continuum's investment advisory fee (described in Item 5). In certain instances, the Independent Manager[s] may also collect Continuum's investment advisory fee from the Client.

The Client, prior to entering into an agreement with an Independent Manager, will be provided with the Independent Manager's Form ADV Part 2A – Disclosure Brochure (or a brochure that makes the appropriate disclosures).

C. Client Account Management

Prior to engaging Continuum to provide investment advisory services, each Client is required to enter into one or more agreements with the Advisor that define the terms, conditions, authority and responsibilities of the Advisor and the Client. These services may include:

- Establishing an Investment Strategy – Continuum, in connection with the Client, may develop a statement that summarizes the Client's investment goals and objectives along with the broad strategy[ies] to be employed to meet the objectives.
- Asset Allocation – Continuum will develop a strategic asset allocation that is targeted to meet the investment objectives, time horizon, financial situation and tolerance for risk for each Client.
- Portfolio Construction – Continuum will develop a portfolio for the Client that is intended to meet the stated goals and objectives of the Client.
- Investment Management and Supervision – Continuum will provide investment management and ongoing oversight of the Client's investment portfolio.

D. Wrap Fee Programs

Continuum does not manage or place Client assets into a wrap fee program.

E. Assets Under Management

As of December 31, 2016, Continuum manages the following assets:

Discretionary Assets	$85,208,000
Non-Discretionary Assets	62,396,000
Total Assets Under Management	$147,604,000

Clients may request more current information at any time by contacting the Advisor.

Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

The following paragraphs detail the fee structure and compensation methodology for services provided by the Advisor. Each Client shall sign one or more agreements with the Advisor that detail the responsibilities of Continuum and the Client.

A. Fees for Advisory Services

Wealth Management Services

For Clients engaged for comprehensive wealth management services, the Client will be charged a single combined investment advisory fees for investment management and financial planning services based on the market value of assets under management. The Advisor does not charge a separate fee for financial planning engagements.

Investment advisory fees are paid quarterly, in advance of each calendar quarter, pursuant to the terms of the investment advisory agreement. Investment advisory fees are based on the market value of assets under management at the end of the prior calendar quarter. Investment advisory fees range from 0.30% to 1.00% annually based on the following schedule:

Assets Under Management	Annual Rate
Up to $1,000,000	1.00%
$1,000,001 to $1,500,000	0.90%
$1,500,001 to $2,500,000	0.70%
$2,500,001 to $3,500,000	0.50%
$3,500,001 to $5,000,000	0.35%
$5,000,001 and Up	0.30%

The investment advisory fee in the first quarter of service is prorated from the inception date of the account[s] to the end of the first quarter. Fees may be negotiable at the sole discretion of the Advisor. The Client's fees will take into consideration the aggregate assets under management with Advisor. All securities held in accounts managed by Continuum will be independently valued by the Custodian. Continuum will not have the authority or responsibility to value portfolio securities.

401(k) and Profit Sharing Plan Platform

Fees for employer-sponsored plans are based on assets under management as negotiated with the Plan Sponsor and typically range up to 0.50% of plan assets under management. The stated fees are charged quarterly in advance or arrears, based on the market value of the total plan assets and pursuant on the terms of the investment advisory agreement.

All internal fees charged by ETFs, mutual funds and closed end funds are separate and distinct from the fees charged by Continuum. Continuum does not at any time act as the custodian or third party administrator for any retirement plan or employer sponsored plan Client.

Independent Manager Fees

For Clients with accounts managed by an Independent Manager, the Client's fee will include both the Independent Manager's Fee[s] and the Continuum fee noted above. Please see Item 14 for additional details.

The Advisor's fee is exclusive of, and in addition to, brokerage fees, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses, which may be incurred by the Client. However, the Advisor shall not receive any portion of these commissions, fees, and costs. The hourly fees are determined after considering many factors, such as the level and scope of the services.

B. Fee Billing

Wealth Management Services

Investment advisory fees will be calculated by the Advisor and deducted from the Client's account[s] at the Custodian. The Advisor shall send an invoice to the Custodian indicating the amount of the fees to be deducted from the Client's account[s] at the respective quarter-end date. The amount due is calculated by applying the quarterly rate (annual rate divided by 4) to the total assets under management with Continuum at the end of the prior quarter. Clients will be provided with a statement, at least quarterly, from the Custodian reflecting deduction of the investment advisory fee. It is the responsibility of the Client to verify the accuracy of these fees as listed on the Custodian's brokerage statement as the Custodian does not assume this responsibility. Clients provide written authorization permitting Continuum to be paid directly from their accounts held by the Custodian as part of the agreement and separate account forms provided by the Custodian.

401(k) and Profit Sharing Plan Platform

Similar to Investment Management Services described above, investment advisory fees will either be automatically deducted from the Client account by the Custodian or may be invoiced to the Client and paid by check or other method. If directly deducting, the Client authorizes the plan's custodian or record keeper to remit the fees directly to the Advisor from the plan's assets and the Advisor shall send an invoice to the plan's custodian indicating the amount of the fees to be deducted from the Client Account[s] at the respective quarter end date. The amount due in all cases is calculated by applying the quarterly rate (annual rate divided by 4) to the total assets under management with Continuum at the end of each quarter. Clients will be provided with a statement, at least quarterly, from the Custodian reflecting deduction of the investment advisory fee. It is the responsibility of the Client to verify the accuracy of these fees as listed on the custodian's brokerage statement as the Custodian does not assume this responsibility. Clients may provide written authorization permitting Continuum to be paid directly from their accounts held by the Custodian as part of the investment advisory agreement and separate account forms provided by the Custodian.

Independent Manager Fees

Clients referred to Independent Manager[s] will be billed in accordance with the agreement with each respective manager. As noted, Continuum's investment or wealth management fee may be collected by an Independent Manager or billed separately. Details are described in Item 14 below.

C. Other Fees and Expenses

Clients may incur certain fees or charges imposed by third parties, other than Continuum, in connection with investments made on behalf of the Client's account[s]. The Client is responsible for all custody and securities execution fees charged by the custodian and executing broker-dealer. The investment advisory fee charged by Continuum is separate and distinct from these custody and execution fees.

In addition, all fees paid to Continuum for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the expenses charged by mutual funds and exchange-traded funds to their shareholders, if applicable. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. These fees and expenses will generally be used to pay management fees for the funds, other fund expenses, account administration (e.g., custody, brokerage and account reporting), and a possible distribution fee. A Client could invest in these products directly, without the services of Continuum, but would not receive the services provided by Continuum which are designed, among other things, to assist the Client in determining which products or services are most appropriate for each Client's financial situation and objectives. Accordingly, the Client should review both the fees charged by the fund[s] and the fees charged by Continuum to fully understand the total fees to be paid.

D. Advance Payment of Fees and Termination

Wealth Management Services

Continuum is compensated for its services in advance of the quarter in which investment advisory services are rendered. Either party may terminate the investment advisory agreement with Continuum, at any time, by providing advance written notice to the other party. The Client shall be responsible for investment advisory fees up to and including the effective date of termination. Upon termination, the Advisor will refund any unearned, prepaid investment advisory fees from the effective date of termination to the end of the quarter. The Client's agreement with the Advisor is non-transferable without the Client's prior consent.

401(k) and Profit Sharing Plan Platform

Continuum is compensated for its 401(k) and Profit Sharing Plan services in advance of the quarter in which investment advisory services are rendered. Clients may request to terminate their Investment Advisory Agreement with Continuum, in whole or in part, by providing advance written notice. The Client shall be responsible for Investment Advisory Fees up to and including the effective date of termination. Upon termination the Advisor will refund any unearned, prepaid investment advisory fees from the effective date of termination to the end of the quarter. The Client's agreement with the Advisor is non-transferable without the Client's prior consent.

Independent Managers

In the event that a Client should wish to terminate their relationship with an Independent Manager, the terms for termination will be set forth in the respective agreements between the Client and that manager. Continuum will assist the Client with the termination and transition as appropriate.

E. Compensation for Sales of Securities

Continuum does not buy or sell securities and does not receive any compensation for securities transactions in any Client account, other than the investment advisory fees noted above.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

Continuum does not charge performance-based fees for its investment advisory services. The fees charged by Continuum are as described in "Item 5 – Fees and Compensation" above and are not based upon the capital appreciation of the funds or securities held by any Client.

Continuum does not manage any proprietary investment funds or limited partnerships (for example, a mutual fund or a hedge fund) and has no financial incentive to recommend any particular investment options to its Clients.

Item 7 – Types of Clients

Continuum provides investment advisory services to individuals, high net worth individuals, trusts, estates, retirement plans, charitable organizations, corporations and business entities. The relative percentage of each type of Client is available on Continuum's Form ADV Part 1. These percentages will change over time. Continuum generally requires a minimum relationship size of $100,000. The minimum relationship size may be waived at the sole discretion of the Advisor. However, certain independent managers may impose minimums for their investment strategies.

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

A. Methods of Analysis

Continuum primarily employs fundamental analysis in developing investment strategies for its Clients. Research and analysis from Continuum is derived from numerous sources, including financial media companies, third-party research materials, Internet sources, and review of company activities, including annual reports, prospectuses, press releases and research prepared by others.

As noted above, Continuum generally employs a long-term investment strategy for its Clients, as consistent with their financial goals. Continuum will typically hold all or a portion of a security for more than a year, but may hold for shorter periods for the purpose of rebalancing a portfolio or meeting the cash needs of Clients. At times, Continuum may also buy and sell positions that are more short-term in nature, depending on the goals of the Client and/or the fundamentals of the security, sector or asset class.

B. Risk of Loss

Investing in securities involves certain investment risks. Securities may fluctuate in value or lose value. Clients should be prepared to bear the potential risk of loss. Continuum will assist Clients in determining an appropriate strategy based on their tolerance for risk and other factors noted above. However, there is no guarantee that a Client will meet their investment goals.

Fundamental analysis utilizes economic and business indicators as investment selection criteria. These criteria are generally ratios and trends that may indicate the overall strength and financial viability of the entity being analyzed. Assets are deemed suitable if they meet certain criteria to indicate that they are a strong investment with a value discounted by the market. While this type of analysis helps the Advisor in evaluating a potential investment, it does not guarantee that the investment will increase in value. Assets meeting the investment criteria utilized in the fundamental analysis may lose value and may have negative investment performance. The Advisor monitors these economic indicators to determine if adjustments to strategic allocations are appropriate. More details on the Advisor's review process are included below in "Item 13 – Review of Accounts".

Each Client engagement will entail a review of the Client's investment goals, financial situation, time horizon, tolerance for risk and other factors to develop an appropriate strategy for managing a Client's account. Client participation in this process, including full and accurate disclosure of requested information, is essential for the analysis of a Client's account. The Advisor shall rely on the financial and other information provided by the Client or their designees without the duty or obligation to validate the accuracy and completeness of the provided information. It is the responsibility of the Client to inform the Advisor of any changes in financial condition, goals or other factors that may affect this analysis.

The risks associated with a particular strategy are provided to each Client in advance of investing Client accounts. The Advisor will work with each Client to determine their tolerance for risk as part of the portfolio construction process. Continuum may use margin in Client accounts to manage the timing of purchases and sales, as appropriate.

Margin Borrowings

The use of short-term margin borrowings may result in certain additional risks to a Client. For example, if securities pledged to brokers to secure a Client's margin accounts decline in value, the Client could be subject to a "margin call", pursuant to which it must either deposit additional funds with the broker or be the subject of mandatory liquidation of the pledged securities to compensate for the decline in value. While the Advisor does not trade in margins for its Clients, certain Clients may have margins for cash handling.

Past performance is not a guarantee of future returns. Investing in securities and other investments involve a risk of loss that each Client should understand and be willing to bear. Clients are reminded to discuss these risks with the Advisor.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

There are no legal, regulatory or disciplinary events involving Continuum or any of its Supervised Persons. Continuum and its Supervised Persons value the trust you place in us. As we advise all Clients, we encourage you to perform the requisite due diligence on any advisor or service provider with whom you partner. Our backgrounds are on the Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov and can be found by searching with our firm name or our firm CRD# 152895.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Insurance License

Mr. Smith is also a licensed insurance professional. Implementations of insurance recommendations are separate and apart from Mr. Smith's role with Continuum. As an insurance professional, Mr. Smith may receive customary commissions and other related revenues from the various insurance companies whose products are sold. Commissions generated by insurance sales do not offset regular advisory fees. This may cause a conflict of interest in recommending certain products of the insurance companies. Mr. Smith is not required to offer the products of any particular insurance company. Clients are under no obligation to implement any recommendations made by Mr. Smith or the Advisor.

Continuum Tax Advisors, LLC

Mr. Smith also owns Continuum Tax Advisors, LLC ("Continuum Tax"), which provides tax preparation services to its clients. This may cause a conflict of interest in recommending the services of Continuum Tax to Clients of the Advisor. Clients are under no obligation to implement any recommendations made by Mr. Smith, or the Advisor.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

A. Code of Ethics

Continuum has implemented a Code of Ethics that defines our fiduciary commitment to each Client. This Code of Ethics applies to all persons associated with Continuum ("Supervised Persons"). The Code of Ethics was developed to provide general ethical guidelines and specific instructions regarding our duties to you, our Client. Continuum and its personnel owe a duty of loyalty, fairness and good faith towards each Client. It is the obligation of Continuum Supervised Persons to adhere not only to the specific provisions of the Code, but also to the general principles that guide the Code. The Code of Ethics covers a range of topics that address employee ethics and conflicts of interest. To request a copy of our Code of Ethics, please contact us at (518) 583-4050 or via email at info@contwealth.com.

B. Personal Trading with Material Interest

Continuum allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. Continuum does not act as principal in any transactions. In addition, the Advisor does not act as the general partner of a fund, or advise an investment company. Continuum does not have a material interest in any securities traded in Client accounts.

C. Personal Trading in Same Securities as Clients

Continuum allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. Owning the same securities we recommend (purchase or sell) to you presents a potential conflict of interest that, as fiduciaries, we must disclose to you and mitigate through policies and procedures. As noted above, we have adopted, consistent with Section 204A of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, a Code of Ethics, which addresses insider trading (material non-public information controls) and personal securities reporting procedures. When trading for personal accounts, Supervised Persons of Continuum may have a conflict of interest if trading in the same securities. The fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of its Clients can potentially be violated if personal trades are made with more advantageous terms than Client trades, or by trading based on material non-public information. This risk is mitigated by Continuum requiring reporting of personal securities trades pursuant to its Code of Ethics. We have also adopted written policies and procedures to detect the misuse of material, non-public information.

D. Personal Trading at Same Time as Client

While Continuum allows our Supervised Persons to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients, such trades are typically aggregated with Client orders or traded afterwards. At no time will Continuum, or any Supervised Person of Continuum, transact in any security to the detriment of any Client.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

A. Recommendation of Custodian[s]

Continuum does not have discretionary authority to select the broker-dealer/custodian for custody and execution services. The Client will engage the broker-dealer/ custodian (herein the "Custodian") to safeguard Client assets and authorize Continuum to direct trades to the Custodian as agreed in the investment advisory agreement. Further, Continuum does not have the discretionary authority to negotiate commissions on behalf of our Clients on a trade-by-trade basis.

Where Continuum does not exercise discretion over the selection of the Custodian, it may recommend the Custodian to Clients for custody and execution services. Clients are not obligated to use the Custodian recommended by the Advisor and will not incur any extra fee or cost associated with using a broker-dealer/custodian not recommended by Continuum.

Continuum may recommend the Custodian based on criteria such as, but not limited to, reasonableness of commissions charged to the Client, services made available to the Client, its reputation, and/or the location of the custodian's offices. Continuum does not receive research services, other products, or compensation as a result of recommending a particular custodian that may result in the Client paying higher commissions than those obtainable through other custodians.

Following are additional details regarding the brokerage practices of the Advisor:

- 1. Soft Dollars - Soft dollars are revenue programs offered by broker-dealers whereby an advisor enters into an agreement to place security trades with the broker-dealer/custodian in exchange for research and other services. Continuum does not participate in soft dollar programs sponsored or offered by any broker-dealer/custodian. However, the Advisor does receive certain economic benefits from the Custodian. Please see Item 14.
- 2. Brokerage Referrals - Continuum does not receive any compensation from any third party in connection with the recommendation for establishing an account.
- 3. Directed Brokerage - All Clients are serviced on a "directed brokerage basis", where Continuum will place trades within the established account[s] at the Custodian designated by the Client. Further, all Client accounts are traded within their respective account[s]. The Advisor will not engage in any principal transactions (i.e., trade of any security from or to the Advisor's own account) or cross transactions with other Client accounts (i.e., purchase of a security into one Client account from another Client's account[s]). Continuum will not be obligated to select competitive bids on securities transactions and does not have an obligation to seek the lowest available transaction costs. These costs are determined by the designated Custodian.

B. Aggregating and Allocating Trades

The primary objective in placing orders for the purchase and sale of securities for Client accounts is to obtain the most favorable net results taking into account such factors as 1) price, 2) size of order, 3) difficulty of execution, 4) confidentiality and 5) skill required of the Custodian. Continuum will execute its transactions through the Custodian as directed by the Client. Continuum may aggregate orders in a block trade or trades when securities are purchased or sold through the Custodian for multiple (discretionary) accounts. If a block trade cannot be executed in full at the same price or time, the securities actually purchased or sold by the close of each business day must be allocated in a manner that is consistent with the initial pre-allocation or other written statement. This must be done in a way that does not consistently advantage or disadvantage particular Client accounts.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

A. Frequency of Reviews

Securities in Client accounts are monitored on a regular and continuous basis by members of the Investment Review Committee of Continuum. Formal reviews are generally conducted at least annually or more or less frequently depending on the needs of the Client.

B. Causes for Reviews

In addition to the investment monitoring noted in Item 13.A., each Client account shall be reviewed at least annually. Reviews may be conducted more or less frequently at the Client's request. Accounts may be reviewed as a result of major changes in economic conditions, known changes in the Client's financial situation, and/or large deposits or withdrawals in the Client's account[s]. The Client is encouraged to notify Continuum if changes occur in the Client's personal financial situation that might adversely affect the Client's investment plan. Additional reviews may be triggered by material market, economic or political events.

C. Review Reports

The Client will receive brokerage statements no less than quarterly from the trustee or custodian. These brokerage statements are sent directly from the custodian to the Client. The Client may also establish electronic access to the custodian's website so that the Client may view these reports and their account activity. Client brokerage statements will include all positions, transactions and fees relating to the Client's account[s]. The Advisor may also provide Clients with periodic reports regarding their holdings, allocations, and performance.

Item 14 - Client Referrals and Other Compensation

A. Compensation Received by Continuum

Participation in Institutional Advisor Platform

Continuum has established an institutional relationship with Schwab through its "Schwab Advisor Services" unit, a division of Schwab dedicated to serving independent advisory firms like Continuum. As a registered investment advisor participating on the Schwab Advisor Services platform, Continuum receives access to software and related support without cost because the Advisor renders investment management services to Clients that maintain assets at Schwab. Services provided by Schwab Advisor Services benefit the Advisor and many, but not all services provided by Schwab will benefit Clients. In fulfilling its duties to its Clients, the Advisor endeavors at all times to put the interests of its Clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits from a custodian creates a potential conflict of interest since these benefits may influence the Advisor's recommendation of this custodian over one that does not furnish similar software, systems support, or services. Services that Benefit the Client – Schwab's institutional brokerage services include access to a broad range of investment products, execution of securities transactions, and custody of Client's funds and securities. Through Schwab, the Advisor may be able to access certain investments and asset classes that the Client would not be able to obtain directly or through other sources. Further, the Advisor may be able to invest in certain mutual funds and other investments without having to adhere to investment minimums that might be required if the Client were to directly access the investments.

Services that May Indirectly Benefit the Client – Schwab provides participating advisors with access to technology, research, discounts and other services. In addition, the Advisor receives duplicate statements for Client accounts, the ability to deduct advisory fees, trading tools, and back office support services as part of its relationship with Schwab. These services are intended to assist the Advisor in effectively managing accounts for its Clients, but may not directly benefit all Clients.

Services that May Only Benefit the Advisor – Schwab also offers other services to Continuum that may not benefit the Client, including: educational conferences and events, consulting services and discounts for various service providers. Access to these services creates a financial incentive for the Advisor to recommend Schwab, which results in a potential conflict of interest. Continuum believes, however, that the selection of Schwab as Custodian is in the best interests of its Clients.

B. Client Referrals from Solicitors

Continuum does not engage paid solicitors for Client referrals.

Item 15 – Custody

Continuum does not accept or maintain custody of any Client accounts, except for the authorized deduction of the Advisor's fee. All Clients must place their assets with a "qualified custodian". Clients are required to engage the Custodian to retain their funds and securities and direct Continuum to utilize the Custodian for the Client's security transactions. Continuum encourages Clients to review statements provided by the Custodian. For more information about custodians and brokerage practices, see "Item 12 - Brokerage Practices".

Item 16 – Investment Discretion

Continuum generally has discretion over the selection and amount of securities to be bought or sold in Client accounts without obtaining prior consent or approval from the Client. However, these purchases or sales may be subject to specified investment objectives, guidelines, or limitations previously set forth by the Client and agreed to by Continuum. Discretionary authority will only be authorized upon full disclosure to the Client. The granting of such authority will be evidenced by the Client's execution of an agreement containing all applicable limitations to such authority. All discretionary trades made by Continuum will be in accordance with each Client's investment objectives and goals.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

Continuum does not accept proxy-voting responsibility for any Client. Clients will receive proxy statements directly from the Custodian. The Advisor will assist in answering questions relating to proxies, however, the Client retains the sole responsibility for proxy decisions and voting.

Item 18 – Financial Information

Neither Continuum, nor its management, have any adverse financial situations that would reasonably impair the ability of Continuum to meet all obligations to its Clients. Neither Continuum, nor any of its advisory persons, has been subject to a bankruptcy or financial compromise. Continuum is not required to deliver a balance sheet along with this Disclosure Brochure as the Advisor does not collect fees of $1,200 or more for services to be performed six months or more in advance.

Privacy Policy

Effective date: March 1, 2017

Our Commitment to You

Continuum Wealth Advisors, LLC ("Continuum" or the "Advisor") is committed to safeguarding the use of personal information of our Clients (also referred to as "you" and "your") that we obtain as your Investment Advisor, as described here in our Privacy Policy ("Policy").

Our relationship with you is our most important asset. We understand that you have entrusted us with your private information, and we do everything that we can to maintain that trust. Continuum (also referred to as "we", "our" and "us") protects the security and confidentiality of the personal information we have and implements controls to ensure that such information is used for proper business purposes in connection with the management or servicing of our relationship with you.

Continuum does not sell your non-public personal information to anyone. Nor do we provide such information to others except for discrete and reasonable business purposes in connection with the servicing and management of our relationship with you, as discussed below.

Details of our approach to privacy and how your personal non-public information is collected and used are set forth in this Policy.

Why you need to know?

Registered Investment Advisors ("RIAs") must share some of your personal information in the course of servicing your account. Federal and State laws give you the right to limit some of this sharing and require RIAs to disclose how we collect, share, and protect your personal information.

What information do we collect from you?

Social security or taxpayer identification number	Assets and liabilities
Name, address and phone number(s)	Income and expenses
E-mail address(es)	Investment activity
Account information (including other institutions)	Investment experience and goals

What Information do we collect from other sources?

Custody, brokerage and advisory agreements	Account applications and forms
Other advisory agreements and legal documents	Investment questionnaires and suitability documents
Transactional information with us or others	Other information needed to service account

How do we protect your information?

To safeguard your personal information from unauthorized access and use we maintain physical, procedural and electronic security measures. These include such safeguards as secure passwords, encrypted file storage and a secure office environment. Our technology vendors provide security and access control over personal information and have policies over the transmission of data. Our associates are trained on their responsibilities to protect Client's personal information.

We require third parties that assist in providing our services to you to protect the personal information they receive from us.

How do we share your information?

An RIA shares Client personal information to effectively implement its services. In the section below, we list some reasons we may share your personal information.

Basis For Sharing	Do we share?	Can you limit?
Servicing our Clients We may share non-public personal information with non-affiliated third parties (such as administrators, brokers, custodians, regulators, credit agencies, other financial institutions) as necessary for us to provide agreed upon services to you, consistent with applicable law, including but not limited to: processing transactions; general account maintenance; responding to regulators or legal investigations; and credit reporting.	Yes	No
Marketing Purposes Continuum does not disclose, and does not intend to disclose, personal information with non-affiliated third parties to offer you services. Certain laws may give us the right to share your personal information with financial institutions where you are a customer and where Continuum or the client has a formal agreement with the financial institution. We will only share information for purposes of servicing your accounts, not for marketing purposes.	No	Not Shared
Authorized Users Your non-public personal information may be disclosed to you and persons that we believe to be your authorized agent(s) or representative(s).	Yes	Yes
Information About Former Clients Continuum does not disclose and does not intend to disclose, non-public personal information to non-affiliated third parties with respect to persons who are no longer our Clients.	No	Not Shared

Changes to our Privacy Policy

We will send you a copy of this Policy annually for as long as you maintain an ongoing relationship with us.

Periodically we may revise this Policy, and will provide you with a revised policy if the changes materially alter the previous Privacy Policy. We will not, however, revise our Privacy Policy to permit the sharing of non-public personal information other than as described in this notice unless we first notify you and provide you with an opportunity to prevent the information sharing.

Any Questions?

You may ask questions or voice any concerns, as well as obtain a copy of our current Privacy Policy by contacting us at (518) 583-4050 or via email at info@contwealth.com.
