GARY NOWITZKE OF LOTUS FINANCIAL SERVICES EARNS EA DESIGNATION

MONROE, MI, JANUARY 30, 2012: Gary Nowitzke, owner of Lotus Financial Services, is pleased to announce his elevated status as an Enrolled Agent. This distinction is awarded by the Internal Revenue Service after passing comprehensive exams that cover all aspects of the tax code. Nowitzke may represent any taxpayer in any state regarding federal tax matters. Nowitzke states, "I am able to represent clients in cases involving audits, collections and appeals. In addition to the EA distinction, I am also working on a Certified Tax Specialist designation."

Lotus Financial Services celebrated their twentieth anniversary in 2011. In addition to the tax services offered at Lotus Financial Services, Nowitzke specializes in 401(k) and 403(b) accounts, new and rollovers, Mutual Funds, Roth IRAs, Tax Sheltered Annuities, Simplified Employee Pension Plans and Life and Health Insurance for individual and business clients.

Securities are offered through Sigma Financial Corporation, a member of FINRA/SIPC. Lotus Financial Services is a proud member of the Monroe County Chamber of Commerce. Gary Nowitzke has a strong commitment to helping our community. He believes in and supports our local community through local advertising, charitable donations, and outreach.

Nowitzke is also pleased to announce that Lotus Financial Services will be moving into downtown Monroe. The historic building is at 11 Scott Street, at the corner of East Front and Scott Streets. Built in 1857, the building has been home to doctors' offices, a restaurant and most recently, the former Bevels Salon and Spa. Renovations are underway and are targeted for completion later this summer. Mr. Nowitzke is working with local architect James Jacobs to preserve the exterior charm of the building whilst making the interior functional with state-of-the-art technology, maintaining the appeal of a turn of century landmark.
