Enrolled Agent

An EA is a federally-authorized tax practitioner who has technical expertise in the field of taxation and who is empowered by the U.S. Department of the Treasury to represent taxpayers before all administrative levels – examination, collection, and appeals – of the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”). In addition to taxpayer representation, enrolled agents can provide tax consultation services and prepare a wide range of federal and state tax returns.

To become an EA, one must either (1) work for the IRS for five years in a position requiring the interpretation of the tax code; or (2) pass all three parts of the Special Enrollment Exam (SEE) and pass a background check. EAs must adhere to ethical standards and complete 72 hours of continuing education courses every three years. Further information about the qualifications and standards required of an EA may be found by visiting the IRS website at <https://www.irs.gov/tax-professionals/enrolled-agents/enrolled-agent-information>.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

- A. Ari Crandall is actively engaged as a registered representative and investment adviser representative of Independent Financial Group, LLC, a broker-dealer and investment adviser independent from Premier Wealth Advisors LLC, and from time to time will earn an ordinary and customary commission from the sale of a security in such capacity. This creates a conflict of interest, because Ari Crandall has the potential to earn both commission and advisory fee revenue from a client. Ari Crandall addresses this conflict of interest by fully disclosing his relationship with Independent Financial Group, LLC, and informing clients that they are under no obligation to purchase a security through him.

Ari Crandall addresses this conflict of interest by fully disclosing his relationship with the applicable insurance provider, and informing clients that they are under no obligation to purchase an insurance product through him.
- C. From time to time, such compensation will be contingent on achieving certain securities sales thresholds (which may or may not be met), in consideration for attending certain educational or training conferences, and in consideration for hosting certain seminars or presentations for clients or prospective clients. These forms of compensation from Independent Financial Group, LLC creates a conflict of interest, because Ari Crandall may feel incentivized to recommend certain products and services of Independent Financial Group, LLC over other comparable product and service providers. Ari Crandall addresses this conflict of interest by fully disclosing his relationship with and compensation from Independent Financial Group, LLC, and informing clients that they are under no obligation to purchase any product or service through him or Independent Financial Group, LLC.
