William E. Haynes, III named to Reuters AdvicePoint™ Top Advisers of 2008

Haynes Recognized Among Top Financial Advisors in the U.S.

New York, NY – December 28, 2007 – William E. Haynes, III of Jackson, Tennessee based Haynes Barker Investment Management, LLC, has been named to the Reuters AdvicePoint™ Top Advisers of 2008 for the East South Central region and the state of Tennessee.

Reuters AdvicePoint™ is an innovative community created by the global information company to enable investors, advisers and other financial experts to connect with greater ease, depth and trust. Top Advisers 2008 recognizes the top financial advisers across America, and qualifying candidates were selected based on dozens of criteria relevant to most investors. Specific criteria included several quantitative factors such as total managed assets, growth of managed assets, average assets per clients, median assets per clients, number of clients, product expertise and client focus.

“I am extremely proud to be recognized by one of the world’s largest international multimedia news agencies,” commented Mr. Haynes. “This acknowledgement is a testament to the level of service we strive to provide and further enhances Haynes Barker’s status among its peers.”

Mr. Haynes began his career in 1990 with Union Planters Bank as a compliance officer. In 1996, he moved to Edward Jones where he worked as a Registered Representative and Limited Partner for the firm. He subsequently worked with Merrill Lynch in the Private Client Group as a Senior Financial Consultant. He is currently a Managing Director at Haynes Barker Investment Management, LLC. Haynes Barker Investment Management, LLC is a boutique firm that specializes in portfolio management and analysis, financial planning, & wealth transfer strategies. Securities are offered through Linsco/Private Ledger, Member of NASD/SIPC.
