By signing this form, you:

IRA owner only

- Authorize and request Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC ("FBS") and National Financial Services LLC ("NFS", together with FBS, "Fidelity"), to make the above distribution from the IRA indicated above.
- Represent that, to the extent you have requested a distribution due to disability, you meet the meaning of disabled, as indicated in IRC Section 72(m)(7).
- Certify under the penalties of perjury, that if you are a U.S. Citizen or other U.S. person (including a resident alien individual), the number shown in Section 1 of this form is your correct taxpayer identification number (or Social Security Number), and if you are not a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien), you have previously submitted IRS Form W-8BEN and included your U.S. taxpayer identification number (or Social Security Number) in order to claim tax treaty benefits, if applicable.

Authorized agent/Advisor only

- Represent that you are an authorized individual of the above-named Authorized agent/Advisor, and request that Fidelity make the above distribution from the IRA owner's IRA pursuant to the asset movement authorization granted by the IRA owner.

IRA owner and Authorized agent/Advisor

- Have read, fully understand, and agree to comply with the Customer Instructions, Terms and Conditions, including the Notice of Withholding attached to this IRA One-Time Distribution Request.
- Indemnify Fidelity Management Trust Company and Fidelity, and their agent(s), successors, affiliates, and employees, from any liability in the event that the IRA owner fails to meet the IRS requirements regarding a distribution from the IRA owner's Premiere Select Traditional IRA, Rollover IRA, Roth IRA, SEP-IRA, Inherited IRA, Inherited Roth IRA, or Fidelity SIMPLE-IRA, as applicable.

Either the IRA owner or the Authorized agent/Advisor identified above that has been granted asset movement authority must print name, sign, and date.

IRA One-Time Distribution Request

Customer Instructions, Terms and Conditions

Instructions, Terms and Conditions for the IRA Owner

Read these Instructions, Terms and Conditions carefully before completing and signing the attached form. The IRA owner is responsible for complying with IRS rules governing IRA distributions, including required minimum distributions and substantially equal periodic payments. If an IRA owner fails to meet any IRS requirements regulating IRA distributions, the IRA owner may be subject to tax penalties. If the IRA owner has any questions regarding the IRA owner's specific situation, consult with either a tax advisor or the IRA owner's Authorized agent/Advisor.

Instructions, Terms and Conditions for Authorized agent/Advisors

If the Authorized agent/Advisor is signing this form on behalf of the IRA owner, the signor represents he or she is an authorized individual of the above-named Authorized agent/Advisor and that he or she is acting pursuant to the asset movement authorization granted by the IRA owner as defined in the Retirement Account Client Agreement or the Asset Movement Authorization Form.

Read these Instructions, Terms and Conditions carefully before completing and signing the attached form. The IRA owner is responsible for complying with IRS rules governing IRA distributions, including required minimum distributions and substantially equal periodic payments. If the Authorized agent/Advisor fails to meet any IRS requirements in regard to requesting an IRA distribution, the IRA owner may be subject to tax penalties.

Form Instructions

The attached form should be used by the IRA owner or an Authorized agent/Advisor that has been granted asset movement authority (herein, "you" or "your") to request a one-time distribution from a Premiere Select Traditional IRA, Rollover IRA, Roth IRA, SEP-IRA, Inherited IRA, or Inherited Roth IRA, or Fidelity SIMPLE-IRA ("IRA") held through Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC ("FBS") and National Financial Services LLC ("NFS," together with FBS, "Fidelity").

If you wish to request a distribution from more than one IRA, you must complete a separate IRA One-Time Distribution Request for each IRA.

Distributions made in cash will be paid from the balance of your core account investment vehicle ("core account"). It is your responsibility to ensure there are sufficient funds available in the core account to process the distribution. If there are insufficient funds available in the core account, the distribution will not be processed.

Upon depletion of all assets in your account, a $75 liquidation/termination fee, as described in your Retirement Account Client Agreement, will be collected from the final distribution amount.

Completing the Form

Write the IRA account number in the boxes in the upper right-hand corner of the form.

1. IRA Owner

Complete this section as appropriate.

2. Distribution Request

Reason for Distribution

Indicate the reason for your distribution to ensure appropriate tax reporting, choosing only one. Note that if you are under 59½ and are taking a distribution for a qualified first-time home purchase ($10,000 lifetime total), qualified higher education expenses, certain medical expenses or health insurance premiums, or substantially equal periodic payments, as defined in Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") section 72(t), select the box for "Premature". You may wish to consult with your tax advisor regarding the tax implications associated with each Reason for Distribution choice.

If you are requesting a qualified Roth IRA distribution, the account must meet the IRS requirement of the 5-taxable-year period. This period begins on (a) the first day of the IRA owner's taxable year for which the first regular contribution is made to any Roth IRA owned by the IRA owner, or (b) if earlier, the first day of the taxable year in which the first conversion contribution is made to any Roth IRA owned by the IRA owner.

If the IRA owner wishes to request a direct Rollover to an Employer-Sponsored Retirement Plan, the IRA owner must sign this form and the distribution must be paid directly to the qualified plan for the benefit of the participant. Provide the plan information (participant name, participant account number, and plan name) in the third party payment method instruction. Sufficient details must be provided to allow the Employer-Sponsored Retirement Plan to apply the funds to the appropriate participant account. Note: Authorized agent/Advisor is not permitted to initiate a Direct Rollover to an Employer-Sponsored Retirement Plan on behalf of the IRA owner. The IRA owner must sign this form.

If the IRA owner wishes to request a disability distribution, refer to section 72(m)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) for more information. Note: Authorized agent/Advisor is not permitted to initiate a disability distribution on behalf of the IRA owner. The IRA owner must sign this form.

If you have inherited IRA assets from a decedent and wish to take death distributions, you must first establish and transfer the assets to an Inherited IRA or Inherited Roth IRA as applicable, and then take the death distributions from the Inherited IRA or Inherited Roth IRA. If you are a spouse beneficiary and wish to transfer the decedent's IRA to your IRA, do not complete this form. Contact your Authorized agent/Advisor for additional instructions. If you are a spouse beneficiary who has transferred inherited IRA assets to your own IRA and are required to take the decedent's year of death Required Minimum Distribution (RMD), you may take the RMD directly from your IRA after the transfer has been processed.

Distribution Instructions

For a distribution other than a Return of Excess Contribution, choose one of the three options listed (For a Return of Excess Contribution, refer to the Return of Excess Contribution section below):

A. Partial Distribution in Cash. The distribution will be paid from the balance in the core account. Provide a specific gross dollar amount to be distributed and select one payment method in the Payment Method section. If you want to gross up the distribution amount to include any federal and state tax withholding and any overnight mail or wire fees (as applicable), check the Gross Up box.

B. Partial Distribution In-Kind.* Provide the investment name(s), a share/unit amount(s) to be re-registered into a non-retirement brokerage account and provide the account number in the Payment Method section. If more space for investment information is needed, list the information requested on the form along with the IRA owner's name, account number and Tax Identification/Social Security number on a separate sheet of paper, sign and date it and attach it to the form.

If you are requesting a partial distribution in kind of shares only, the value of the distribution will be grossed up to include any federal and state tax withholding. Tax withholding for distributions in kind will be withheld from the core account. If you are requesting a partial distribution of cash and shares, and would like to gross up the amount to include any federal or state tax withholding, check the Gross Up box.

C. Full Distribution.* (Distribution of the entire IRA Balance)

- For a full distribution that is to be made in cash from the core account, select one payment method in the Payment Method section.
- For a full distribution to be made in-kind, provide the IRA owner's Fidelity non-retirement brokerage account number in the Payment Method section.

* Note: Certain securities may only be issued in specified denominations.

3. Return of Excess Contribution

Do NOT use this form to correct an excess contribution to a SIMPLE IRA. Contact your Authorized agent/Advisor for information on how to request a return of excess contribution to a SIMPLE IRA. Note: The Authorized agent/Advisor is not permitted to initiate a Return of Excess Contribution on behalf of an IRA owner. The IRA owner must sign this form to request a return of excess contribution.

Provide the date on which the excess contribution was made, the tax year for which the excess contribution was made, and whether you are requesting the return of excess contribution before or after the IRA owner's tax filing deadline, including extensions for the year in which the excess contribution was made.

Choose whether you authorize Fidelity to calculate attributable earnings on the excess contribution, or you will provide the attributable earnings amount. If you authorize Fidelity to calculate attributable earnings, you must specify only the principal amount of the excess contribution. If you are providing the attributable earnings amount, you must specify the principal amount, the earnings amount and the total of these two amounts.

Redeposit as Current Year Contribution – Optional

If you wish to redeposit all or a portion of the excess contribution as a current year contribution,* you must specify the amount of the redeposit and the remainder to be distributed to you. Note: the amount of the redeposit cannot exceed the IRA owner's current year allowable IRA contribution limit.

* Any amount to be distributed and then re-deposited as a current year contribution will be reported on an IRS Form 1099-R (for the distribution) and IRS Form 5498 (for the contribution).

 Payment will be made in accordance with the payment method selected in the Payment Method section and will be reported, less any wire or overnight mail fee, if applicable, on IRS Form 1099-R.

Note:

- You may be able to correct contributions to a Roth IRA by recharacterizing the Roth IRA contribution (and its earnings) to another IRA for the same tax year. Contact a tax advisor for more information on how to correct an excess Roth IRA contribution via recharacterization.
- If the IRA owner's employer makes a nondeductible contribution to the IRA owner's SEP-IRA, the excess amount is first treated as a regular annual IRA contribution and then to the extent the amount exceeds the IRA Owner's annual IRA contribution limit, an excess occurs and can be corrected by requesting a return of excess contribution in this section of the form.
- A return of excess contribution (distribution) is not required if you are correcting the excess contribution by using the carry-over method of re-applying the excess contribution to subsequent tax years until the excess is depleted. Do not complete this form if you choose this option. Consult a tax advisor or your Authorized agent/Advisor for more information.
- The amount of an excess contribution that is not distributed to you or applied to a subsequent year contribution by the tax filing deadline, including extensions, for the year in which the contribution was made, is subject to a 6% IRS penalty for each year that it remains in an IRA for the benefit of the IRA owner.
- Any applicable earnings distributed to IRA owner should be included as income in the year the contribution was made and may be subject to a 10% IRS early distribution penalty if IRA owner is under age 59½.
- If you elect to have federal and/or state income taxes withheld from the distribution, withholding will only apply (i) to the earnings that are specified if the distribution is processed prior to the IRA owner's tax filing deadline, including extensions, for the year in which the excess contribution was made, or (ii) to the entire amount of the distribution if the distribution is processed after the IRA owner's tax filing deadline, including extensions.

4. Payment Method

If no payment method is selected, the payment will be made by check to the mailing address of record. Skip this section if you are electing 100% tax withholding.

Distribution to a Fidelity Non-Retirement Account

If you want cash or securities distributed in-kind to a Fidelity non-retirement account, provide the non-retirement name and account number. An application must be completed to establish a new Fidelity non-retirement brokerage account. Note: Authorized agent/Advisor may not request a distribution to a 3rd Party Fidelity non-retirement account without standing instructions.

Check Disbursement

A. 1st Party Check. Check will be paid and mailed to the name and address of record. This is the default payment method if no payment method is selected.

If you have previously provided standing instructions, check this box. If you have multiple sets of standing instructions, provide the line number of the specific set of instructions, as it pertains to this situation. The line number can be obtained from your Authorized agent/Advisor.

B. 3rd Party Check. If you want a check paid to a payee other than the IRA owner and/or mailed to an address other than the mailing address of record, check this box and provide complete alternate payee and/or alternate address instructions.

If you have previously provided standing instructions, check this box. If you have multiple sets of standing instructions, provide the line number of the specific set of instructions, as it pertains to this situation. The line number can be obtained from your Authorized agent/Advisor.

Note: Authorized agent/Advisor may not request a distribution to an alternate payee and/or address without standing instructions. The IRA owner's signature is required.

Additional Fields for Check Disbursements

The Memo field can be used to provide information that will print on the check but will not appear visible in the window of the envelope.

The Check Stub Information field can be used to provide information that will only print on the check stub.

Overnight Mail - Optional. If you wish to have the check mailed via overnight delivery, provide the carrier name and billing number and, for UPS only, carrier address. If you do not provide this information, an overnight mail fee of $8.00 will be deducted from the balance of the core account for the IRA. If there are insufficient funds in the core account, the overnight mail fee will be deducted from the distribution amount indicated in the Distribution Instruction section or the Return of Excess Contribution section, as applicable, and will affect the IRA owner's reported distribution amount. (For example, if there is a distribution request of $1,000 and there are insufficient funds in the core account of the IRA, both the distribution amount mailed and the distribution amount reported on IRS Form 1099-R will be $992.) If you are taking this distribution to satisfy an RMD, and there are insufficient funds in the core account to cover the fee, request an amount that will satisfy both the RMD amount and the overnight mail fee amount.

Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT)

In order to send the distribution via EFT the recipient bank must be a member of the Automated Clearing House.

A. 1st Party EFT. If you would like the distribution to be deposited directly to the IRA owner's individually owned bank account (the name on the bank account and the IRA is the same), check this box. The IRA owner must already have standing EFT instructions on the account. If the account is not currently set up for standing EFT, a Standing Instructions form must be completed to establish the EFT instructions. Note: it may take 7-10 business days to establish EFT standing instructions. Once EFT is established, allow 2-3 days after the date the distribution is processed for funds to reach the bank.

If you have multiple sets of standing instructions, provide the line number of the specific set of instructions, as it pertains to this situation. The line number can be obtained from your Authorized agent/Advisor.

B. 3rd Party EFT. If you would like the distribution to be deposited to the IRA owner's joint bank account or a third party bank account, check this box. If the IRA owner does not have third party payee instructions on the account, provide the Bank Information. If there are standing instructions, check the box. If there are multiple sets of standing instructions, provide the line number of the specific set of instructions, as it pertains to this situation. The line number can be obtained from your Authorized agent/Advisor. Note: Authorized agent/Advisor may not request a 3rd Party EFT distribution without standing instructions.

Bank Wire

To request a distribution to be paid by Bank Wire, choose either 1st Party Bank Wire (the name on the bank account and the IRA is the same) or 3rd Party Bank Wire (the name(s) on the bank account and the IRA is different). Note: Authorized agent/Advisor is not permitted to initiate a 3rd Party Bank Wire distribution without standing instructions.

If you have previously provided standing instructions, check this box. If there are multiple sets of standing instructions, provide the line number of the standing instructions to be used for this request. The line number can be obtained from your Authorized agent/Advisor.

If not using standing instructions, check the Alternate Instructions box and provide the bank information. In order to send a distribution via Bank Wire, the recipient institution must be a member of the Federal Reserve System.

For both a 1st Party Bank Wire and 3rd Party Bank Wire, a wire processing fee of $30 ($15 if your Authorized agent/Advisor submits the request using the Integrated Cashiering Platform ("ICP), Fidelity's transaction entry tool) will be deducted from the balance of your core account for the IRA. If there are insufficient funds in the core account, the wire fee will be deducted from the distribution amount indicated on this form and will affect the IRA owner's reported distribution amount. If this distribution is being taken to satisfy an RMD, and there are insufficient funds in the core account to cover the fee, request an amount that will satisfy both the RMD amount and the wire fee amount. The receiving bank may also charge a fee for the receipt of the Bank Wire.

5. Notice of Withholding

Read carefully before completing the Tax Withholding Elections section of the form.

An IRA distribution (other than Roth IRA distributions and Direct Rollovers), are subject to federal (and, in some cases, state) income tax withholding unless you elect not to have withholding apply. Withholding will apply to the gross amount of each distribution, even if the IRA owner has made non-deductible contributions. Moreover, failure to provide a U.S. residential address will result in 10% federal income tax withholding on the distribution proceeds even if you have elected not to have tax withheld (an IRS requirement as applicable). A Post Office Box does not qualify as a residential address.

If you elect to have withholding apply (by indicating so on the distribution request form, by making no choice, or by not providing a U.S. residential address), federal income tax will be withheld from the IRA owner's distribution(s) (excluding Roth IRA distributions and Direct Rollovers) at a rate of at least ten percent (10%). Federal income tax will not be withheld from distributions from a Roth IRA unless you elect to have such tax withheld.

The IRA distribution may also be subject to state income tax withholding. See below for IRA owner's state's withholding rules. The IRA owner's state of residence will determine his or her state income tax withholding requirements, if any. The IRA owner's state of residence is determined by his or her legal address of record provided for the IRA.

Residents of AR, IA, KS, MA, ME, OK, and VT: If federal income tax is withheld, state income tax of at least the IRA owner's state's minimum requirements must be withheld in addition to federal income tax withholding at the time of the distribution. If you elect out of federal income tax withholding, state income tax will not be withheld unless you indicate otherwise.

Residents of CA, NC, and OR: If federal income tax is withheld, state income tax of at least the IRA owner's state's minimum requirements must be withheld in addition to federal income tax withholding at the time of the distribution unless you elect not to have state income taxes withheld.

Residents of DC: If you are taking a distribution of your entire account balance and not directly rolling that amount over to another eligible retirement account, DC requires that a minimum amount be withheld from the taxable portion of the distribution, whether or not federal income tax is withheld. In that case, you must elect to have the minimum DC income tax amount withheld by completing the Withholding Election section. If your entire distribution amount has already been taxed (for instance, only after-tax or nondeductible contributions were made and you have no pre-tax earnings), you may be eligible to elect any of the withholding options. If you wish to take a distribution of both taxable and nontaxable amounts, you must complete a separate distribution request form for each and complete the Withholding Election sections of the forms, as appropriate.

Residents of DE: State income tax of at least the IRA owner's state's minimum requirements must be withheld regardless of whether or not federal income tax is withheld unless you elect not to have state income taxes withheld.

Residents of MI: MI generally requires state income tax of at least your state's minimum requirements regardless of whether or not federal income tax is withheld. Tax withholding is not required if you meet certain MI requirements governing pension and retirement benefits. Reference the MI W-4P Form for additional information about calculating the amount to withhold from your distribution. Contact your tax advisor or Authorized agent/Advisor for additional information about MI requirements.

Residents of AK, FL, HI, MS, NH, NV, SD, TN, TX, WA, and WY: State income tax withholding is not available on IRA distributions. Consult a tax advisor, state agency, or your Authorized agent/Advisor for more information.

Residents of all other states: The IRA owner is not subject to mandatory state income tax withholding; however, you may elect voluntary state income tax withholding in a percentage. If you elect to have state income taxes withheld and the IRA owner's state provides a minimum amount or percentage for withholding, you must elect a percentage that is not less than the IRA owner's state's minimum withholding requirements. If the percentage you elect for withholding is less than the IRA owner's state's minimum withholding requirements, the IRA owner's state's minimum amount or percentage will be withheld.

Important: State tax withholding rules can change, and the rules cited above may not reflect the current ruling of IRA owner's state. Consult with a tax or investment advisor to obtain the most up-to-date information pertaining to the IRA owner's state.

Whether or not you elect to have federal and, if applicable, state income tax withheld, the IRA owner is still responsible for the full payment of federal income tax, any state tax or local taxes, and any penalties which may apply to this distribution(s). Whether or not you elect to have withholding apply (by indicating so on the distribution form), the IRA owner may be responsible for payment of estimated taxes. The IRA owner may incur penalties under the IRS and applicable state tax rules if the IRA owner's estimated tax payments are not sufficient.

If the IRA owner is not a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien), you must submit IRS Form W-8BEN, Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding, prior to submitting the distribution request form to claim tax treaty benefits, if applicable. A distribution will be subject to applicable non-treaty tax withholding rates if the IRA owner fails to provide Form W-8BEN. To obtain Form W-8BEN, consult a tax advisor or go to the IRS Web site at <http://www.irs.gov>.

6. Signature and Date

Before signing the distribution form, carefully read the IRA One-Time Distribution Request form and Customer Instructions, Terms and Conditions. The distribution form is part of a legal agreement between you and Fidelity, and by signing the Signature and Date section you are agreeing to be bound by the terms and conditions contained in the Premiere Select IRA Custodial Agreement and Disclosure Statement or Premiere Select Roth IRA Custodial Agreement and Disclosure Statement or Fidelity SIMPLE IRA Custodial Agreement and Disclosure Statement, as applicable.

Authorized agent/Advisor Signature (when applicable)

By signing the distribution form, Authorized agent/Advisor is authorizing Fidelity, as agent for Fidelity Management Trust Company ("FMTC"), to distribute funds out of the IRA pursuant to the asset movement authorization granted by the IRA owner. Authorized agent/Advisor acknowledges this distribution may have tax implications to the IRA owner, including the assessment of tax penalties. Once this distribution is complete, the requested transaction and any associated tax reporting cannot be cancelled. Consult with a tax advisor if Authorized agent/Advisor has any questions about this distribution and the tax implications it may have to the IRA owner.
