SageView Expands in California

IRVINE (May 13, 2015) – SageView Advisory Group is pleased to announce the opening of a new office in Pasadena, California and that Rodney Balbuena and Cathy Christ have joined the firm.

Rodney Balbuena joins SageView as Managing Director in SageView's Pasadena location and will focus on providing quality retirement plan advisory services to corporate and not-for-profit plan sponsors. Throughout his career, Rodney has been committed to developing strong business relationships and has an excellent reputation providing quality service to his clients.

Prior to joining SageView, Rodney provided specialized retirement plan advisory services to mid and large sized organizations for over 20 years. Most recently, Rodney served as a Retirement Investment Adviser for one of the largest insurance brokerages in the United States.

Cathy Christ joins SageView as a Retirement Plan Consultant based in the Irvine, California office. Her primary focus includes assisting clients with fiduciary compliance, plan design and management, leading vendor searches, facilitating plan conversion and implementation, delivering investment reviews, and assisting with ongoing plan administration.

Cathy has worked exclusively in the retirement industry for over 18 years. Prior to SageView, she served in many different capacities, including Retirement Plan Specialist for one of the largest global investment management firms.

Randy Long, SageView's founder, expressed his excitement for the growth of the West region. "Rodney and Cathy are both talented retirement professionals and we are thrilled to have them join our team," said Long. "Rodney and Cathy have exceptional relationships with their clients and their insights will be invaluable as we continue to grow our business."
