CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (“CFP®”)

Mr. Kurimoto is certified for financial planning services in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”). Therefore, he may refer to himself as a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional or a CFP® professional, and he may use these and CFP Board’s other certification marks (the “CFP Board Certification Marks”). The CFP® certification is voluntary. No federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold the CFP® certification. You may find more information about the CFP® certification at www.cfp.net.

CFP® professionals have met CFP Board’s high standards for education, examination, experience, and ethics. To become a CFP® professional, an individual must fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Earn a bachelor’s degree or higher from an accredited college or university and complete CFP Board-approved coursework at a college or university through a CFP Board Registered Program. The coursework covers the financial planning subject areas CFP Board has determined are necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, as well as a comprehensive financial plan development capstone course. A candidate may satisfy some of the coursework requirement through other qualifying credentials. CFP Board implemented the bachelor’s degree or higher requirement in 2007 and the financial planning development capstone course requirement in March 2012. Therefore, a CFP® professional who first became certified before those dates may not have earned a bachelor’s or higher degree or completed a financial planning development capstone course.

- Ethics – Commit to complying with CFP Board’s Code and Standards. This includes a commitment to CFP Board, as part of the certification, to act as a fiduciary, and therefore, act in the best interests of the client, at all times when providing financial advice and financial planning. CFP Board may sanction a CFP® professional who does not abide by this commitment, but CFP Board does not guarantee a CFP® professional’s services. A client who seeks a similar commitment should obtain a written engagement that includes a fiduciary obligation to the client.
- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years to maintain competence, demonstrate specified levels of knowledge, skills, and abilities, and keep up with developments in financial planning. Two of the hours must address the Code and Standards.

Chartered Financial Analyst™ (“CFA®”)

CFA® designates an international professional certificate that is offered by the CFA Institute. The Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA®) charter is a globally respected, graduate-level investment credential established in 1962 and awarded by CFA Institute — the largest global association of investment professionals.

There are currently more than 190,000 CFA® Charterholders working in over 170 countries and regions. To earn the CFA® charter, candidates must: (1) pass three sequential, six-hour examinations; (2) have at least four years of qualified professional investment experience; (3) join CFA Institute as members; and (4) commit to abide by, and annually reaffirm, their adherence to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct.

High Ethical Standards

The CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct, enforced through an active professional conduct program, require CFA® Charterholders to:

- Place their clients’ interests ahead of their own
- Maintain independence and objectivity
- Act with integrity
- Maintain and improve their professional competence
- Disclose conflicts of interest and legal matters

Global Recognition

Passing the three CFA exams is a difficult feat that requires extensive study (successful candidates report spending an average of 300 hours of study per level). Earning the CFA® charter demonstrates mastery of many of the advanced skills needed for investment analysis and decision making in today’s quickly evolving global financial industry. As a result, employers and clients are increasingly seeking CFA® Charterholders —often making the charter a prerequisite for employment. Additionally, regulatory bodies in 38 countries/territories recognize the CFA® charter as a proxy for meeting certain licensing requirements, and more than 466 colleges and universities around the world have incorporated a majority of the CFA Program curriculum into their own finance courses.

Comprehensive and Current Knowledge

The CFA Program curriculum provides a comprehensive framework of knowledge for investment decision making and is firmly grounded in the knowledge and skills used every day in the investment profession. The three levels of the CFA Program test a proficiency with a wide range of fundamental and advanced investment topics, including ethical and professional standards, fixed-income and equity analysis, alternative and derivative investments, economics, financial reporting standards, portfolio management, and wealth planning.

The CFA Program curriculum is updated every year by experts from around the world to ensure that candidates learn the most relevant and practical new tools, ideas, and investment and wealth management skills to reflect the dynamic and complex nature of the profession.

Broker-Dealer Affiliation

Mr. Kurimoto is also a registered representative of Lincoln Investment Planning, LLC ("Lincoln Investment Planning"). Lincoln Investment Planning is a registered broker-dealer (CRD# 519), member FINRA, SIPC. In Mr. Kurimoto's separate capacity as a registered representative, Mr. Kurimoto will receive commissions for the implementation of recommendations for commissionable transactions. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendation provided by Mr. Kurimoto. Neither the Advisor nor Mr. Kurimoto will earn ongoing investment advisory fees in connection with any products or services implemented in Mr. Kurimoto's separate capacity as a registered representative.

Other Registered Investment Advisor Affiliation

Mr. Kurimoto is also an Investment Advisor Representative ("IAR") of Lincoln Investment Planning, LLC ("Lincoln Investment Planning") (CRD# 519). As a financial advisor with Lincoln Investment Planning, Mr. Kurimoto will receive investment advisory fees for investment management services offered. Mr. Kurimoto will provide each Client with Lincoln Investment Planning's Form ADV 2A or equivalent disclosure brochure, in advance of providing investment management services. At no time will Mr. Kurimoto or the Advisor earn both ongoing investment advisory fees under the Advisor and ongoing investment advisory fees through Lincoln Investment Planning on the same investment assets. Mr. Kurimoto spends approximately 50% of time per month on this activity.

Insurance Agency Affiliations

Mr. Kurimoto is also a licensed insurance professional conducting the majority of his business through K2 Benefits and Insurance Services, Inc, an insurance agency owned in part by Mr. Kurimoto. Implementations of insurance recommendations are separate and apart from Mr. Kurimoto's advisory role with K2 Financial.

Mr. Kurimoto will receive customary commissions and other related revenues from the various insurance companies whose products are sold, either directly as a licensed insurance professional or through K2 Benefits and Insurance Services, Inc. Mr. Kurimoto is not required to offer the products of any particular insurance company. Commissions generated by insurance sales do not offset regular advisory fees. This may cause a conflict of interest in recommending certain products of the insurance companies. Clients are under no obligation to implement any recommendations made by Mr. Kurimoto, K2 Benefits and Insurance Services, Inc., or the Advisor.

Tax Preparation Services

K2 Financial, through its affiliate Krellwitz Kurimoto & Associates (DBA K2 Financial Partners, DBA K2 Tax Prep) ("KK&A") which is under common control and ownership with the Advisor, may provide tax preparation services. KK&A, a CTEC Registered Tax Preparer (CRTP), offers tax preparation to individuals, high net worth individuals, trusts, and estates. Some employees of K2 Financial, including Mr. Kurimoto, are also employees of or provide services to KK&A. Fees for tax preparation services are based upon the complexity of the services to be provided. Advisor has in the past and expects in the future to refer Clients to KK&A to receive tax services.

This situation creates a conflict of interest because the owners of Advisor, who also own KK&A, will receive compensation if a Client engages KK&A for tax services. As part of Advisor's fiduciary duty to clients, K2 and its representatives act in the Client's best interest at all times, and a referral will be made to the extent that it is in the best interest of the Client. Additionally, the conflicts presented by these practices are disclosed to clients through K2 Financial's Brochure, Brochure Supplements, and/or verbally prior to or at the time of entering into an agreement with K2 Financial. Clients are under no obligation to engage KK&A for any tax preparation services.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Mr. Kurimoto has additional business activities where compensation is received that are detailed in Item 4 above. Mr. Kurimoto does not receive economic benefits from someone who is not a client.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Broker-Dealer Affiliation

Mr. Rodriguez is also a registered representative of Lincoln Investment Planning, LLC ("Lincoln Investment Planning"). Lincoln Investment Planning is a registered broker-dealer (CRD# 519), member FINRA, SIPC. In Mr. Rodriguez's separate capacity as a registered representative, Mr. Rodriguez will receive commissions for the implementation of recommendations for commissionable transactions. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendation provided by Mr. Rodriguez. Neither the Advisor nor Mr. Rodriguez will earn ongoing investment advisory fees in connection with any products or services implemented in Mr. Rodriguez's separate capacity as a registered representative.

Other Registered Investment Advisor Affiliation

At no time will Mr. Rodriguez or the Advisor earn both ongoing investment advisory fees under the Advisor and ongoing investment advisory fees through Lincoln Investment Planning on the same investment assets. Mr. Rodriguez spends approximately 50% of time per month on this activity.

Mr. Rodriguez will receive customary commissions and other related revenues from the various insurance companies whose products are sold, either directly as a licensed insurance professional or through K2 Benefits and Insurance Services, Inc. Mr. Rodriguez is not required to offer the products of any particular insurance company. Commissions generated by insurance sales do not offset regular advisory fees. Clients are under no obligation to implement any recommendations made by Mr. Rodriguez, K2 Benefits and Insurance Services, Inc., or the Advisor.

Tax Preparation Services

K2 Financial, through its affiliate Krellwitz Kurimoto & Associates (DBA K2 Financial Partners, DBA K2 Tax Prep) ("KK&A") which is under common control and ownership with the Advisor, may provide tax preparation services. Some employees of K2 Financial are also employees of or provide services to KK&A. Fees for tax preparation services are based upon the complexity of the services to be provided. Advisor has in the past and expects in the future to refer Clients to KK&A to receive tax services.

This situation creates a conflict of interest because the owners of Advisor, who also own KK&A, will receive compensation if a Client engages KK&A for tax services. As part of Advisor's fiduciary duty to clients, K2 and its representatives act in the Client's best interest at all times, and a referral will be made to the extent that it is in the best interest of the Client. Additionally, the conflicts presented by these practices are disclosed to clients through K2 Financial's Brochure, Brochure Supplements, and/or verbally prior to or at the time of entering into an agreement with K2 Financial.
