BOLVIN WEALTH MANAGEMENT GROUP PRESIDENT

At the core of any successful business is an instinctual confidence in one's own capabilities—capabilities shaped by knowledge and passion. For Gina Bolvin, president of Bolvin Wealth Management Group, success began with a leap of faith, years of studying and a bit of parental direction. “My father, a serial entrepreneur, taught me—and inspired me—to invest in stocks when I was in college, and I was immediately hooked,” Gina says.

“I never focus on gender; I concentrate on delivering exceptional service and results to all of my clients.”

After college, Gina joined a finance training program at a traditional brokerage firm, when she perfected the craft of personal finance. Yet to fully connect with her clients and form reliable relationships that produce the best results, Gina knew she had to take matters into her own fully-capable hands. “I took a leap of faith and started my own practice,” she says. And with perseverance and positivity, success was inevitable—both for Gina and her clients, as her practice has become the gold standard for service and knowledge in the region.
