Item 2 Education Background and Business Experience

Sonja Elia was born in 1972. Ms. Elia graduated from the University of North Florida in 1996, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications and in 2004, with a Master degree in Education. Since April 2016, Ms. Elia has been the Operations Manager and an investment adviser representative of Salvus Wealth Management, LLC. From April 2011 to April 2016, Ms. Elia was a personal portfolio advisor at Camarda Financial Advisors, LLC

Ms. Elia has held the designation of Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC[®]) since 2014. The ChFC[®] designation has been a mark of excellence for almost thirty years and currently requires nine college-level courses, the most of any financial planning credential. Average study time to earn the ChFC[®] exceeds 450 hours. Required courses cover extensive education and application training in financial planning, income taxation, investments, and estate and retirement planning. Additional electives are chosen from such topics as macroeconomics, financial decisions for retirement, and executive compensation. ChFC[®] designees must meet experience requirements and adhere to continuing education and ethical standards. The credential is awarded by The American College, a non-profit educator founded in 1927 and the highest level of academic accreditation.

Ms. Elia has held the designation of Retirement Income Certified Professional[®] (RICP[®]) since 2015. The RICP[®] designation teaches advisers techniques and best practices used to create sustainable streams of retirement income. The education covers retirement income planning, maximizing Social Security and other income sources, minimizing risks to the plan, and managing portfolios during the asset distribution phase. The designation includes three required, college-level courses that represent a total average study time of more than 150 hours. RICP[®] designees must meet experience, continuing education and ethics requirements. The credential is awarded by The American College, a non-profit educator founded in 1927 and the highest form of academic accreditation.

Additional information about Jeffrey M. Jacobs is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 2 Education Background and Business Experience

Jeffrey M. Jacobs was born in 1963. Mr. Jacobs graduated from University of Florida in 1984, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting and in 1985 with a Master of Accounting degree with Tax Concentration. Since July 2016, Mr. Jacobs has been an investment adviser representative of Salvus Wealth Management, LLC. Since October 2015, Mr. Jacobs has been the Managing Member and a CPA with JJCPA, LLC. From September 2011 to December 2015, Mr. Jacobs was a registered representative and an investment adviser representative with 1st Global Advisors Inc. From January 2008 to October 2015, Mr. Jacobs was a CPA with Masters Smith & Wisby PA.

Mr. Jacobs holds the designation of Certified Public Accountant ("CPA"). CPAs are licensed and regulated by their state boards of accountancy. While state laws and regulations vary, the education, experience and testing requirements for licensure as a CPA generally include minimum college education (typically 150 credit hours with at least a baccalaureate degree and a concentration in accounting), minimum experience levels (most states require at least one year of experience providing services that involve the use of accounting, attest, compilation, management advisory, financial advisory, tax or consulting skills, all of which must be achieved under the supervision of or verification by a CPA), and successful passage of the Uniform CPA Examination. In order to maintain a CPA license, states generally require the completion of 40 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) each year (or 80 hours over a two year period or 120 hours over a three year period). Additionally, all American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) members are required to follow a rigorous Code of Professional Conduct which requires that they act with integrity, objectivity, due care, competence, fully disclose any conflicts of interest (and obtain client consent if a conflict exists), maintain client confidentiality, disclose to the client any commission or referral fees, and serve the public interest when providing financial services. The vast majority of state boards of accountancy have adopted the AICPA's Code of Professional Conduct within their state accountancy laws or have created their own.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information

None.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

- A. The supervised person is not actively engaged in any other investment-related businesses or occupations.
- B. Certified Public Accountant and Accounting Firm. Mr. Jacobs is also a certified public accountant ("CPA"), and the Managing Member of the accounting firm JJCPA, LLC. To the extent that a client specifically requests accounting advice and/or tax preparation services, Salvus Wealth Management, LLC's representatives may recommend the services of a CPA, including Mr. Jacobs in his individual capacity as a CPA, and/or the services of the accounting firm JJCPA, LLC. Any such accounting advice and/or tax preparation services shall rendered independent of Salvus Wealth Management, LLC pursuant to a separate agreement between the client and the applicable CPA. Salvus Wealth Management, LLC shall not receive any of the fees charged by the CPA, referral or otherwise.

Conflict of Interest: The recommendation by Salvus Wealth Management, LLC's representatives that a client engage Mr. Jacobs or JJCPA, LLC to provide accounting services presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of fees for accounting services may provide an incentive to recommend such services, rather than recommending such services based upon a particular client's needs. No client is under any obligation to utilize Mr. Jacobs or JJCPA, LLC for accounting services. Clients are reminded that they may elect to obtain accounting services recommended by Salvus Wealth Management, LLC through other non-affiliated certified public accountants.

Salvus Wealth Management, LLC's Chief Compliance Officer, Robert W. Joel, remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

Item 5 Additional Compensation
