

Golden Pond Wealth Management again helped sponsor the 2019 Maine Pond Hockey Classic. Golden Pond sponsored two teams this year. The Dokes of Hazard and the Golden Pucks.

Bert Languet, known as “The Ice Man” is in charge of maintaining the rinks for the event said “You cannot fight mother nature. Instead, you need to learn to dance with her. The weather is difficult each year, but we rise to the challenge and have been able to improve this event each year. As a result, we continue to add teams and have made this one of the premier winter events in Central Maine. All the time and effort is worth it when we look at where the money goes – to the children at the AYC.”

Between the Polar Dip and the Pond Hockey Classic, the amount raised was over $55,000. All proceeds go directly to the Kids' Kitchen, which serves over 50,000 hot meals and snacks annually and packs over 120 Meal Backpacks to go home weekly for kids in need.
