Item 3: Disciplinary Information¹

There are no legal or disciplinary events material to the evaluation of Mr. Dockery.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Mr. Dockery is a licensed insurance agent. He may offer insurance products and receive customary fees as a result of insurance sales. A conflict of interest may arise as these insurance sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation earned. To mitigate this potential conflict, Mr. Dockery, as a fiduciary, will act in the client's best interest.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Mr. Dockery does not receive any other economic benefit for providing advisory services in addition to advisory fees.

Item 6: Supervision

Carol Brock, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Compliance Officer of Argent Wealth, LLC, supervises and monitors Mr. Dockery's activities on a regular basis to ensure compliance with our firm's Code of Ethics. Please contact Ms. Brock if you have any questions about Mr. Dockery's brochure supplement at (601) 957-0323.

¹ Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving the advisor to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of advisor to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.
