EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND AND BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

Rory M. McGlynn (DOB 1987), CFP®, joined SPC Financial, Inc. in 2010. Since then, Rory has served in a variety of roles at SPC and thus understands how financial planning works from top to bottom. He is committed to providing his clients with comprehensive plans to help meet their individualized goals and needs. Rory is most interested in developing, implementing, and refining the plans of young professionals who are beginning to envision their own financial futures.

Rory attended the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Massachusetts where he received a B.A. in Economics. In 2014, Rory became a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional, after completing his studies in financial planning at The American College. The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ certification can only be obtained by achieving and complying with several requirements. Currently these requirements include having at least a bachelor's degree, three years of full time relevant work experience, passing a rigorous examination, completing continuing education, and meeting the CFP Board's ethics standards.

Rory is also a Registered Representative with Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. (member FINRA/SIPC). He holds a General Securities Representative (Series 7), and a NASAA Uniform Combined State Law (Series 66) license, as well as Life and Health Insurance licenses.

DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

All accounting and tax services, however, are provided by Sella & Martinic, LLC through a separate engagement letter with clients.

Other Activities

Mr. McGlynn may participate in events or accept speaking engagements regarding various financial topics unrelated to investment services or securities products. He may also render general tax and financial advice to Clients when providing financial planning services. Mr. McGlynn is a member of the Board of Directors of the Holy Cross Club of the Capital Region. He does not receive compensation from this activity.

For more information regarding other financial industry activities and affiliations of SPC Financial, Inc. or its IARs, please refer to our Firm's Brochure. SPC and Sella & Martinic, LLC are not registered broker/dealers and both are independent of RJFS.

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

If Clients act upon advice provided by Mr. McGlynn as an IAR, Mr. McGlynn, Sella & Martinic, LLC and/or SPC Financial® may receive fees and/or commissions. On securities related transactions, Raymond James Financial Services and/or their affiliates may receive fees and/or commissions. On assets custodied at Raymond James & Associates, Raymond James Financial Services and/or their affiliates may receive fees and/or commissions.

As part of its fiduciary duties to Clients, SPC endeavors at all times to put the interests of its investment advisory Clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits by SPC or its related persons in and of itself creates a potential conflict of interest.

Mr. McGlynn does not pay for or receive compensation for Client referrals.

SUPERVISION

Daniel A. Ball, General Counsel and Chief Compliance Officer of SPC Financial, Inc., is responsible for oversight and supervision of the day-to-day compliance of the firm, including the investment advisory related activities of the firm's IARs. Mr. Ball joined SPC Financial® in October 2015. He is an Investment Advisor Representative with SPC Financial®, as well as a registered representative with Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. (member FINRA/SIPC). He holds a General Securities Representative (Series 7) license and a NASAA Uniform Combined State Law (Series 66) license.

Mr. Ball earned a B.A. from the University of Texas at Austin (1978); a J.D. from Antioch School of Law (1982); and a LL.M. in Securities Regulation from Georgetown University Law Center (1987). He acquired securities law and regulatory knowledge through more than 30 years of private practice and government legal experience. Mr. Ball was a staff attorney for three years with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, Division of Corporation Finance. He has worked in several law firms as an associate attorney, of counsel, and partner, and was the principal of his own law practice. His diverse range of securities law experience includes: provided guidance and advice to investment adviser firms in SEC and state securities compliance examinations; represented securities professionals in SEC, FINRA, CFP® Board, and state securities investigations and enforcement proceedings; represented investors in securities arbitrations against broker-dealer firms; and represented persons in SEC investigations and civil complaints for insider trading, market manipulation, misleading investors, and other fraud claims.

IARs and the advice provided to clients are supervised by a variety of means such as internal meetings with the IARs to discuss client investment objectives and goals, reviewing client financial plans, reviewing IARs' meeting notes with clients, and reviewing executed transactions. Questions regarding the supervision of IARs may be directed to Mr. Ball at (301) 770-6800 or by email to dball@spcfinancial.com
