Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Registered Representative of Securities Management & Research, Inc.

Darréll Mitchell is separately licensed as a registered representative with Securities Management & Research, Inc. (“SM&R, Inc.”) a registered securities broker/dealer, member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the Securities Investors Protection Corporation (SIPC). When acting in his separate capacity as a registered representative of SM&R, Inc., Mr. Mitchell may sell, for commissions, general securities products such as stocks, bonds, mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, and variable annuity and variable life products to advisory clients. As such, Mr. Mitchell may suggest that advisory clients implement investment advice by purchasing securities products through a commission-based SM&R, Inc. account in addition to a BFCP advisory account.

The receipt of commissions creates an incentive for Mr. Mitchell to recommend those products for which he will receive a commission. Consequently, the objectivity of the advice rendered to clients could be biased. Mr. Mitchell controls for this potential conflict of interest by discussing with clients the advantages and disadvantages of establishing a fee-based account through BFC Planning versus establishing a commission-based account through SM&R, Inc. BFC Planning, Inc. does not require its advisor representatives to encourage clients to implement investment advice through SM&R, Inc.

Mr. Mitchell does not earn commissions in fee-based accounts.

Mr. Mitchell may receive 12b-1 fees from certain mutual fund companies as outlined in the fund's prospectus. 12b-1 fees come from fund assets, therefore, indirectly from client assets. The receipt of such fees could represent an incentive for Mr. Mitchell to recommend funds with 12b-1 fees over funds that have no fees or lower fees. Typically, Mr. Mitchell will receive 12b-1 fees only in commission-based brokerage accounts. However, such fees can be earned in fee-based accounts managed by Mr. Mitchell if 12b-1 fee paying mutual funds are held in the managed account. For ERISA accounts, there is an offset for any amount of 12b-1 fees. In such a situation, Mr. Mitchell discusses with clients the selection of a 12b-1 paying mutual fund or other trail paying mutual funds. BFC Planning maintains records of all 12b-1 fee payments to Mr. Mitchell which may be viewed by clients upon request.

Clients are never obligated or required to establish accounts through BFC Planning or SM&R, Inc. However, if a client chooses not to accept Mr. Mitchell's advice or decides not to establish an account through SM&R, Inc., Mr. Mitchell may not be able to provide management and advisory services to the client. Clients should understand that, due to certain regulatory constraints, Mr. Mitchell, in his capacity as a SM&R, Inc. registered representative must place all purchases and sales of securities products in commission-based brokerage accounts through SM&R, Inc. or its other approved institutions.
