

Privacy Policy

The Marshall Financial Group, LLC

The Firm takes precautions to maintain the privacy of personal information concerning the Firm's current and prospective individual investors. These precautions include the adoption of certain procedures designed to maintain and secure such investors' nonpublic personal information from inappropriate disclosure to third parties. Federal regulations require the Firm to inform investors of this privacy policy.

The Firm collects nonpublic personal information about its investors from the following sources:

- Information the Firm receives from an investor in an application or other forms to open an account or other related documents or forms;
- Information about an investor's transactions with the Firm, its affiliates, or others, including service providers that are necessary to carry on our everyday business; and
- Information the Firm may receive from a consumer reporting agency.

The Firm does not disclose any nonpublic personal information about its prospective, existing or former investors to anyone, except to service providers that have been advised as to proper handling of the information and otherwise as permitted or required by law and regulation.

The Firm restricts access to nonpublic personal information about its investors to those employees and agents of the Firm who have been advised as to the proper handling of such information and who need to know that information in order to provide services to its investors. The Firm may also disclose such information to its affiliates and to service providers and financial institutions that provide services to the Firm that are necessary or appropriate for the administration of the Firm and the effectuation of its transactions or are otherwise permitted by law, such as prime brokers and administrators. The Firm will require such third-party service providers and financial institutions to protect the confidentiality of the investors' nonpublic personal information and to use the information only for purposes for which it is disclosed to them. The Firm may also disclose nonpublic personal information to regulatory authorities as required or permitted by applicable law. The Firm maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to safeguard the investors' nonpublic personal information and which the Firm believes are adequate to prevent unauthorized disclosure of such information.

The Firm does not otherwise provide information about current, former and prospective investors to outside firms, organizations or individuals except at the investor's request or to attorneys, accountants and auditors of any current, former and prospective client.

If you have any questions concerning this privacy policy, please contact Peter Marshall at (410) 563-1044.
