Level Four® Group Welcomes Amy Bouchie to its Evansville, IN Branch Office

PLANO, TX - March 7, 2014 - Level Four® Group welcomes the newest advisor to join the Level Four® Advisory Services network, Amy Bouchie. Amy has been fulfilling individuals' and families' financial planning needs in Indiana for years, with a focus on helping independent women organize and strengthen their financial lives. Amy has been an LPL Financial advisor for a number of years and has decided to supplement that support network with Level Four's extensive list of practice enhancement programs and operational support. Amy and her two assistants, Danielle and Natalie, will continue to provide top-notch service in the rapidly growing Evansville market.
