

BUILDING YOUR INSURANCE AND FINANCIAL FUTURE...ONE BLOCK AT A TIME

MICHAEL ANDERSON

Michael Anderson is a proud husband and a father of three.

Michael's heritage in the insurance industry began over 75 years ago when his grandfather, Carleton G. Anderson started an insurance agency in Los Angeles, California. Michael's father took over that agency, C. G. Anderson & Associates, Inc., when his grandfather passed away in 1968. Michael's father ran that agency until he passed suddenly in 1996 when Michael took over and ran the agency until it merged with ISU North American Insurance agency in 1999.

Michael truly began his insurance carrier when his father hired him to clean the office on weekends during High School. Michael then began working part time while in college at Azusa Pacific as a personal lines assistant.

Michael obtained his Property & Casualty Agents license in 1983 and Life License in 1988. As Michael worked his way up and went full time in 1986, he learned each aspect of the agency ending up as a commercial insurance producer. Since that time, he has insured businesses who pay minimum premiums to developing entire risk management programs with clients generating 1,000,000 in annual premium. Michael has been a student of some of the most knowledgeable people in the industry. Whether it is an individual looking for the most competitive auto insurance premium or the large, multi-state manufacturing company with hundreds of employees, Michael is ready to provide the same, professional, knowledgeable approach to finding his clients the "Best Value" for their insurance dollar. The same value that his father and grand-father provided their clients before him.
