SUPERVISION

Daniel A. Ball, General Counsel and Chief Compliance Officer of SPC Financial, Inc., is responsible for oversight and supervision of the day-to-day compliance of the firm, including the investment advisory related activities of the firm's IARs. Mr. Ball joined SPC Financial® in October 2015. He is an Investment Advisor Representative with SPC Financial®, as well as a registered representative with Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. (member FINRA/SIPC). He holds a General Securities Representative (Series 7) license and a NASAA Uniform Combined State Law (Series 66) license.

Mr. Ball earned a B.A. from the University of Texas at Austin (1978); a J.D. from Antioch School of Law (1982); and a LL.M. in Securities Regulation from Georgetown University Law Center (1987). He acquired securities law and regulatory knowledge through more than 30 years of private practice and government legal experience. Mr. Ball was a staff attorney for three years with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, Division of Corporation Finance. He has worked in several law firms as an associate attorney, of counsel, and partner, and was the principal of his own law practice. His diverse range of securities law experience includes: provided guidance and advice to investment adviser firms in SEC and state securities compliance examinations; represented securities professionals in SEC, FINRA, CFP® Board, and state securities investigations and enforcement proceedings; represented investors in securities arbitrations against broker-dealer firms; and represented persons in SEC investigations and civil complaints for insider trading, market manipulation, misleading investors, and other fraud claims.

IARs and the advice provided to clients are supervised by a variety of means such as internal meetings with the IARs to discuss client investment objectives and goals, reviewing client financial plans, reviewing IARs' meeting notes with clients, and reviewing executed transactions. Questions regarding the supervision of IARs may be directed to Mr. Ball at (301) 770-6800 or by email to dball@spcfinancial.com
