NAPA NAMES KEN BARNES AND LUCAS BARTON AS TOP YOUNG ADVISORS

IRVINE (December 17, 2019) – SageView Advisory Group, one of the leading independent registered investment advisory firms in the nation, is pleased to announce that two of its associates have been named to NAPA’s 2020 “Top Young Advisors” listing.

Established in 2014, the list is drawn from nominations provided by the National Association of Plan Advisors (NAPA) Broker-Dealer/RIA Firm Partners and vetted by a blue ribbon panel of judges. These senior industry experts considered a combination of quantitative and qualitative data submitted by the nominees, as well as a broker-check review. A record 600 individuals were nominated for the award this year, a 20 percent increase over last year.

Over the years, many of these “Aces,” as they are nicknamed, have gone on to become the very industry leaders this recognition was designed to help identify.

SageView’s Ken Barnes, CFP®, CIMA® and Lucas Barton, CFP®, are among those who earned a coveted spot on the impressive list this year.

“I am thrilled to be included on the list of advisors making an impact on the retirement industry. It is a privilege to help plan sponsors and participants meet their retirement goals,” said Ken Barnes.

Lucas Barton commented: “It is a great honor to be named on the list of young advisors that will be making an impact on plan sponsors and the financial well-being of their employees for years to come.”

SageView Founder and CEO Randy Long voiced his congratulations, adding “Both Ken and Lucas are extremely deserving of the ‘Top Young Advisor’ title. Both started in the industry at a young age and have demonstrated incredible dedication to their clients and to the retirement plan industry.”
