Lance A. Browning Earns Retirement Income Certified Professional® Designation

Tyler, TX, January 24, 2014 – Lance A. Browning, an advisor at Income Solutions Wealth Management has obtained his Retirement Income Certified Professional (RICP®) designation. The designation represents the culmination of years of experience, the completion of a rigorous educational program and a commitment to upholding a high ethical standard.

“I am proud to add the RICP designation to my professional credentials,” said Browning. “I believe the designation is important because it helps clients understand they are working with a knowledgeable, experienced advisor who conducts business with the highest level of integrity.”

The RICP designation is awarded by the Certification Committee of the Board of Trustees at The American College, a regionally accredited institution of higher education. To earn the designation, financial professionals must pass three college-level courses covering such topics as investments, retirement planning, taxes, insurance planning, financial planning and estate planning. In addition, RIPC designees must complete at least three years of full-time work experience in a related field and must take a pledge of ethics.

Browning has been helping clients pursue their financial goals for over 16 years.
