

Bert Languet, CFP® and the Augusta Kiwanis Club recently completed the new playground at the new Maine General Medical Center in Augusta. The playground fits into the mission of Kiwanis International which focuses on serving children. "It was a great project and is already being used by children visiting the hospital" - Bert Languet.

