

MOMENTS of INTEGRITY Hunter Bayles

We are pleased to announce our Moments of Integrity recipient for May 2015/ June 2015 is Hunter Bayles. Congratulations Hunter!

Hunter is a junior, 17, at Rogers High School in Rogers. He played basketball through this year and also played for RHS his freshman and sophomore years. He does not intend on playing his senior year. He is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Hunter is very involved at Fellowship Bible Church in Rogers. He leads a fifth grade group and is also involved in a cell group.

Hunter's family includes his father, Robert, mother, Vickie and sister, Tori. His father works for Johnson Plumbing. His mother works for Belleview Elementary in Rogers, where she is a fourth grade teacher. Tori, 14, is a student at Elmwood Junior High School in Rogers.

Hunter attended the Motion Conference in Birmingham, AL last year and it changed his life. That is when he was called to serve the ministry. He also attended SWAT last summer through Fellowship Bible Church, which is a leadership program where kids in high school meet and are trained to lead cell groups, bible studies and youth groups.

He travelled to Puebla, Mexico during Spring Break this year where he served El Camino Church, as well as many other small churches on Mount Cuatotala. His group helped to paint and clean up the churches while spreading the gospel. It was on this mission trip that Hunter preached for the first time at El Camino Church with the help of an interpreter.

Please join us in celebrating Hunter as our newest Moments of Integrity recipient!

Brandon Simmons and Lloyd du Preez of Integrity Capital Wealth Management would like to congratulate Hunter Bayes for being this month's Moments of Integrity award winner.
