INTRODUCING CARE AWARE AND INTERNATIONAL BEST SELLING AUTHOR LISA SEE APRIL 21, 2017

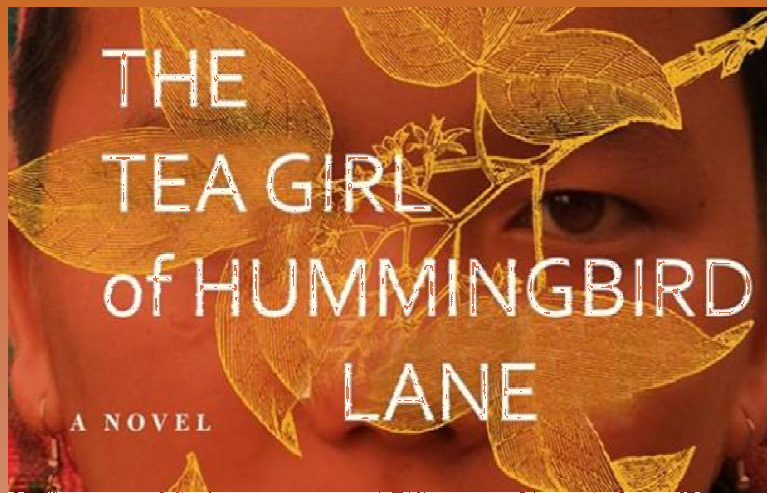

This is the first issue of our new newsletter called CARE Aware. The idea is to let you know what the STARCARE Foundation is up to philanthropically because we think giving is important. The foundation donates money to worthy causes each quarter to try and make a difference in the world. Helping others always makes our lives better as well.

Sometimes, we'll just let you know about a cause or an issue we're supporting that may impact your family. Other times, our contributions come with invitations to events. We happily share the opportunity to attend with you, especially if it's a speaker or a cause you care about.
