

The Current

Looking Glass Wealth Advisors - Blue Ridge Group

Welcome to the first edition of The Current, 2019.

What a glum end to the year. Much like the weather in Asheville when it rained it poured. The market rained volatility for the last quarter of 2018 with the S&P ending the year down -6.59% (-4.75% with dividend reinvestment). Shelter from the storm was elusive in 2018, but just as the New Year began, the clouds parted ways. We have seen quite a turn around this January and look forward to exploring what the year has in store.

In this issue find market related content along with helpful planning tips. After all, January is the month of resolution right?

We hope you will join us next Tuesday evening as we peer into the Market for a 2019 Outlook. In the meantime, we appreciate your continued confidence.

Looking Back

Albeit a bit lengthier than our typical video, please take five minutes to Look Back at the 2018 Market with our Chief Investment Officer, Mark Nichol. The insight is a primer for our 2019 Market Outlook.

Looking In

Each year millions of people resolve to change, grow, accomplish. According to US News and World Report, 80% of New Years Resolutions fail by February. We are here to help change that statistic. If you have resolved to create a help plan, become financially fit, or get your estate plan in order, we are with you for the long haul. An essential component to our business practice is financial planning...

Let us help you stay on track in 2019.
