

OUR NAME IS CHANGING!

I hope this edition of Brief Notes finds you well. The purpose of today's newsletter is to announce our new name - Hudson Dynamic Retirement.

WE ARE A TEAM

For many of you who have been working with us for more than 20 years, you know that our "doing business name" has changed a few times. Most recently in 2006, from Fusion Financial to Andrew Brief Retirement Strategies to more accurately reflect our independence and specialized focus on retirement planning. The motivation for today's change is designed to simply highlight more of the team approach we foster with our client relationships.

Many of you have commented that our level of service and the attention to your personal goals and objectives continues to improve over time. Although more advanced technology has played a roll, the main reason clearly is the quality and skill of our support staff with whom you are in direct contact - specifically, Christina and Rick.

NO WORRIES!

Our name change should in no way be a cause of concern. I am not retiring! I am not sure I ever will. However, as the experience and knowledge of our staff continues to grow, our responsibilities will continue to be shared with the ultimate goal of providing the best planning services possible. We believe the new name better reflects this
