Kehoe Financial Advisors Adds Staff Member

Kehoe Financial Advisors in Cincinnati has added Erin Savage-Weaver of Fairfax to its financial advising team.

Savage-Weaver, a Certified Financial Planner®, has 17 years of experience in the financial services and advising industry. She develops and executes financial planning strategies unique to each client's situation and goals.

“We’re very excited to have Erin on our team,” said Tom Keller, partner at Kehoe Financial Advisors. “She’s personable and brings great experience and energy to our organization.”

Savage-Weaver earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from the University of Cincinnati, where she was a member of the marching band. She became interested in banking and financial advising after graduation and earned an Executive Certificate in Financial Planning from Xavier University.

She specializes in women's financial situations and develops financial strategies for the "new modern family"-- singles and divorced, widowed, and same-sex couples.

"Events that happen in a woman's life—such as a divorce or widowhood, or taking care of a spouse or aging parent—can change a family's financial dynamic and call for different financial planning solutions," said Savage-Weaver. "I want to work with clients to gain clarity, reduce anxiety and build confidence for their financial futures."

Savage-Weaver enjoys reading, cross-stitch, traveling, movies, concerts and youth sports. She and her husband, Scott, have a 9-year-old son.

She is a long-time volunteer with the Junior League of Cincinnati and a member of Tau Beta Sigma, a national honorary band sorority.

Kehoe Financial Advisors in Cincinnati is a 37-year-old financial advising and services practice, assisting clients in developing and implementing financial strategies to help meet retirement, estate and business planning objectives, business continuation and succession planning, and real estate investment.
