SAGEVIEW EXPANDS IN THE SOUTHWEST WITH ADDITION OF TJ ARCURI IN PHOENIX

IRVINE (August 26, 2019) – SageView Advisory Group, one of the leading independent retirement plan advisory firms in the nation, announced today that TJ Arcuri has joined SageView as a Retirement Plan Consultant in Phoenix, Arizona.

TJ will further SageView's strong continued growth in the Southwest, bringing over a decade of experience in institutional retirement plan design and relationship management. He specializes in collaborating with retirement plan sponsors to offer cost-effective, high-value retirement programs in the defined contribution, defined benefit and non-qualified plan space. He is passionate about working with clients to identify their unique needs and create solutions to attract and retain talent while constructing a sound fiduciary risk mitigation process.

Prior to joining SageView, TJ was a Senior Institutional Relationship Manager at Vanguard, supporting some of Vanguard's largest and most complex retirement programs.

"Working with plan sponsors over the years, I have always admired SageView. The boutique style plan sponsor experience, quality of people and energized culture are unmatched. SageView is a comprehensive organization that's lean and focused enough to provide an intimate client experience. I want to focus on driving positive retirement outcomes and am thrilled and privileged to deliver this with SageView," said TJ.

TJ holds a B.S. in Finance and minor in Economics from the University of Delaware, and an MBA from Arizona State University with a dual emphasis in Finance and International Business.

"SageView strives to only bring in best-in-class advisors who are first and foremost client advocates, making TJ a great fit culturally and an outstanding addition to the team," commented Randy Long, SageView Founder and Managing Principal.

Phoenix marks SageView's 25th location and 3rd new office opening since last year. The firm now has 140 employees nationally with over 1,250 retirement plans and $101 billion in assets under advisement.
