HB FINANCIAL RESOURCES LTD. SUPPORTS OUR TROOPS THROUGH RED SHIRT FRIDAYS

It is with great Pride that HB Financial Resources, Ltd. is participating in a program that Supports our American Troops.

Many Americans, like you, our friends, and me, simply want to recognize that the vast majority of America Supports Our Troops. In saying this, I want you to know that this is NOT political in any way (for or against the war). This is simply a way to let our Men and Women in the Services of our Great Nation know that by wearing red on Friday, we support them and their loved ones. They are not alone out there.

HB Financial's idea is a showing of solidarity and support for our troops with dignity and respect. Employees will be wearing a red shirt, sending a deafening message that...

"Every American who Supports our Troops near and afar will wear something RED!"

This is the American Way...HB Financial's way! For more information, you are welcome to visit the redshirtfridays.org website.
