Item 3 Disciplinary Information

This item discusses any disciplinary problems connected with me.

There have been no disciplinary problems associated with me.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

This item tells you about any other business activities in which I am engaged.

I am a Registered Principal, Branch Office Manager and Officer with Supervisory Jurisdiction with Cetera Advisor Networks, LLC, (formerly Financial Network Investment Corporation), a securities broker-dealer and investment adviser.

Since 1991, I have furnished expert witness services in securities litigation proceedings.

I have also served on the boards of directors of non-profit organizations

Fees may be fully or partially offset by commissions that are earned by me in my various registered or licensed capacities.

Furthermore, if securities are purchased subject to a sales charge in a fee based account, such revenue to me in my role as a registered representative will be credited to your account. Investment management fees will not be charged by our firm on that account until the sales charge revenue received by me and credited to your account is completely exhausted. It is important to us and to me that you not pay twice for the same service.

I am a licensed insurance agent in the state of California. From time to time, I might offer you advice or products from that activity. This may create a conflict of interest because I could be motivated by consideration of a commission in giving you investment advice.

If, as a result of investment advice, you were to purchase an insurance policy from me I would receive the normal commission for selling you that product. As stated above, this presents a possible conflict in that I would receive the standard commission for such a sale and might be prompted to recommend an insurance product I wanted to sell, and perhaps also receive investment advisory fees

If I was to act both as an investment advisor representative and also as an insurance agent, I would disclose both activities to you and discuss the possible conflict again with you.

(Also see Item 5, below.)

Item 5 Additional Compensation

This item describes the types of compensation I might receive in addition to giving you investment advice.

Fees may be fully or partially offset by commissions that are earned by me in my various registered or licensed capacities.

If, as a result of investment advice, you were to purchase or sell securities through me or the broker-dealer which I represent, I would receive the normal commission for selling you those securities. This presents a possible conflict in that I would receive the standard commission for such a sale and might be prompted to recommend a securities transaction to earn such a commission, and perhaps also receive investment advisory fees.

Furthermore, if securities are purchased subject to a sales charge in a fee based account, such revenue to me in my role as a registered representative will be credited to your account. Investment management fees will not be charged by our firm on that account until the sales charge revenue received by me and credited to your account is completely exhausted. It is important to us and to me that you not pay twice for the same service.

If I was to act both as an investment advisor representative and as a broker-dealer representative or insurance company agent, I would disclose both relationships to you and discuss the possible conflict again with you.

(Also see Item 4, above.)
