OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Your Investment Advisor (Advisor), who provides investment advice for a fee, may also engage in the following activities:

Your Advisor is a registered representative of LFA, which is a registered broker-dealer. As a broker-dealer, LFA offers a variety of securities products to clients, including, but not limited to, mutual funds, variable annuities, Section 529 college savings plans, stocks, bonds, unit investment trusts, REITs and Alternative Investments. Your Advisor may also be a licensed insurance agent of various insurance companies including The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company and Lincoln Life & Annuity Company of New York, Affiliates of LFA, and may offer insurance products such as fixed annuities and life insurance. LFA promotes the use of an open architecture platform, which means that your Advisor has access to a broad spectrum of securities and insurance products from multiple product providers.

Your Advisor, when acting as a registered representative or insurance agent, may sell investments and insurance products and receive commissions, which may vary by product type and/or issuer. Your Advisor, when acting as a registered representative or insurance agent, may also receive other forms of compensation from LFA and/or product issuers, including benefit programs, 12b-1 mutual fund fees, incentives and incentive trips, loans, marketing support and education/training programs, all of which may be built into the costs of the product. In some cases, registered representatives and insurance agencies receive more compensation when placing Lincoln manufactured products, and may qualify for additional compensation based on the volume of those sales over time.

This differential compensation may present a potential conflict of interest because your Advisor may have a greater incentive to recommend investment or insurance products based on compensation received rather than on client need. To address this potential conflict, LFA conducts reviews of securities and investment transactions, in accordance with regulatory requirements of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, to ensure recommended transactions are suitable. The goal of LFA is to provide superior products and services regardless of the potential compensation differential that exists in the pricing of financial products and services.

Depending on which products you purchase, you may receive additional materials which disclose important information, such as prospectuses, applications, and disclosure brochures. You are under no obligation to purchase investment or insurance products from your advisor.

Advisors are required to disclose all outside business activities to LFA, and may not conduct these activities without receiving prior written approval and following any conditions imposed by LFA. However, LFA does not directly supervise and follow any conditions imposed by LFA. However, LFA does not directly supervise these activities, and your Advisor is responsible for complying with any rules and regulations that apply to their outside business activities. This business activity may provide a substantial amount of Advisor income and/or involve a substantial amount of their time. Compensation for this activity may involve fees, commissions, salary, equity, or other forms of income. LFA does not compensate the Advisor for conducting this activity and your Advisor is required to keep this activity separate and apart from their role with LFA.

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

An ongoing asset management fee deducted from the client's advisory account and financial planning fees paid by the client are the most common methods of payment for LFA and the Advisor. Advisors may receive additional and/or differential compensation from LFA and/or advisory program sponsors in the form as described above (i.e., benefit programs, incentives and incentive trips, marketing support, and education/training programs, etc.) Depending on which advisory program or service you purchase, you may receive additional materials which disclose important information, such as prospectuses, applications, and disclosure brochures. For additional information on compensation, please see LFA's Form ADV, Part 2A.

SUPERVISION

Ryan Baker is supervised by Travis Dougherty, Manager, 503-265-5513. We supervise Advisors and require that they comply with policies and procedures adopted, maintained, and enforced by LFA to ensure compliance with the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. LFA also maintains a Code of Ethics that governs Advisors' activities. Our Code of Ethics is described in greater detail in the LFA Form ADV, Part 2A disclosure brochure and wrap fee program brochures. LFA has dedicated personnel in its corporate offices to approve new advisory accounts. On an ongoing basis, LFA also conducts audits and supervisory visits of its offices as part of its supervision of its Advisors to ensure compliance with applicable rules and regulations.
