RYE BROOK, N.Y. Craig Katz, financial advisor at Strategies for Wealth, has received the prestigious Agency Builder Award.

This award recognizes an individual who has demonstrated excellent leadership and supporting the growth of the firm. Katz, a resident of Rye Brook, NY states, “I’m honored to receive this award. This career has given me the opportunity to impact people’s lives in a positive way. I feel lucky to be able to wake up and do what I love every day.”

“It is so important that our advisors are not only focused on the growth of their individual careers, but on the success of the firm as a whole. Craig is a great example of someone who cares not only for his clients but also for the success of those around him,” said Josh Becker, Partner of Strategies for Wealth.
