Jacobi Wealth Advisors Announces Tunkhannock Office

Tunkhannock, PA; February 10, 2016: Jacobi Wealth Advisors has announced the opening of new offices at 66 East Tioga Street in downtown Tunkhannock, Pennsylvania. An independent firm headquartered in Wilkes-Barre, Jacobi Wealth Advisors delivers customized financial planning, retirement planning, and independent investment management to families, business owners, and corporations. The Tunkhannock location represents the firm's third in Pennsylvania, and follows its mid-2014 office opening in Berwyn, PA within the Westlakes Corporate Center. Jacobi Capital Management, a Registered Investment Adviser, is the exclusive provider of fee-based investment management services to clients of Jacobi Wealth Advisors.

Rodman C. Azar, a Senior Partner with the firm since 2011, will lead the Tunkhannock office. A native of Wyoming County and a graduate of Columbia University, Mr. Azar has over 23 years of experience in the financial services industry. Prior to joining Jacobi Wealth Advisors, Mr. Azar was a Managing Director with J.P. Morgan in New York City, where he advised and raised capital for institutional clients in the real estate, lodging and gaming sectors for over 15 years.

"We're very excited to open our new office in Wyoming County," said Michael J. Hirthler, Jacobi's President and Chief Investment Officer. "Rod is one of the most experienced financial professionals in the region, and has been a dedicated local community member since returning to the area several years ago. We look forward to helping and advising families and local businesses throughout the Endless Mountains."

Stacey Seaberg, a local resident for over 20 years, has joined Jacobi Wealth Advisors as Director of Operations for the Tunkhannock office. Mrs. Seaberg has over 10 years of experience in the financial services and human resources industries, having previously worked for Wells Fargo, Spherion Staffing Services, and Freedom Home Mortgage.
