When you're ready to visit with us in person, our office is ready to welcome you! We've carefully developed guidelines and protocols to help you feel safe when you come to meet with us. Some of these include:

- Socially distanced seating throughout.
- Hand sanitizer stations at reception and throughout the office.
- Facemasks required for all staff and visitors while meeting indoors.
- Employee must work remotely for two weeks after any exposure to an illness, or after exhibiting any symptoms of illness.

We would love to see you again in person, but we understand if you have personal or family health concerns and prefer to meet remotely. We'll continue to have phone and video conference meeting options to ensure we connect in the way that works best for you. Whether in-person or via digital connection, we look forward to meeting with you again soon.

Sincerely,

Thane McCready, CFP®
