Nine SageView Advisors Named to NAPA's Top Women Advisors List

January 9, 2018 – SageView Advisory Group is proud to announce that nine of its advisors were included in the 2017 National Association of Plan Advisors (NAPA) Top Women Advisors list. The NAPA honorary lists were drawn from nearly 600 nominations submitted by NAPA firm partners. More than 12,000 votes were cast in support of these selected individuals.

This list was created two years ago “to acknowledge the contributions of a growing number of women who are making significant contributions to the retirement industry, as well as bringing excellence to the profession,” according to the publication.

Nominees were asked to respond to a series of questions about their experience and practice, which was evaluated by a panel of judges. The nominees were divided into three categories based on their team structure and experience as follows:

- Captains: All-stars who happen to be principals, owners, or team captains of their organizations.
- All-Stars: Top producers who have their own practice.
- Rising Stars: Top producers who have less than five years of experience with retirement plans as a financial advisor.

The nine SageView associates selected for this list are as follows: Captains - Nichole Labott (Richmond, VA) and Brenda Tarjan (Irvine, CA). All-Stars - Kyla Bolger (Irvine, CA), Kerrie Casey (Boston, MA), Tina Chambers (Orinda, CA) Ann Cheu (Woodside, CA), Maressa Etzig (West Palm Beach, FL), Shelly Schaefer (Milwaukee, WI) Larissa Whittle (Knoxville, TN).

These women will be recognized at the 2017 NAPA 401(k) Summit on April 15-17 in Nashville, TN. SageView would like to congratulate all the 2017 nominees and winners. You can read more here: <http://www.napa-net.org/news/inside-napa/awards-and-honors/announcing-2017-napa-top-women-advisors/>.
