BACKPACK AND SCHOOL SUPPLIES DONATION MADE TO CHILDREN OF ERIE NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSE

CHICAGO, IL, AUGUST 15, 2018 – Paul Gassel, Managing Partner of WWM Investments, is hosting a backpack give away for incoming kindergartners at Erie Neighborhood House on Wednesday, August 22, 2018 at 5:00 p.m.

“We want the kids to feel ready and prepared for the start of kindergarten,” said Gassel. “I am very passionate about supporting children in the area”.

Gassel, Managing Partner of WWM Investments, purchased the 67 backpacks and filled them with school supplies of Crayola crayons, Crayola markers, pencils, glue sticks, spiral notebooks, and folders. The children who will receive the filled backpacks are currently enrolled in the Early Childhood Education program at Erie House and are going to kindergarten in the fall.

“We are grateful for Paul’s commitment to our mission and to equipping Erie kids with the tools and resources they need to reach their potential,” said Kirstin Chernawsky, Executive Director at Erie House. “This is a great send-off to kindergarten for our kids and families.”

Many of the children will continue coming to Erie House during after-school hours in the School-Age Program this fall. The agency also offers summer programming to aid with reading retention and provide a safe, supportive environment for neighborhood kids.

In addition to the backpack give away, Gassel is sponsoring an ice cream truck at the event to provide ice cream to the children and their families.
