

STARCARE

One of the tools in our financial literacy program is the Money Savvy Piggy Bank. It introduces children to the concepts of saving, spending wisely and sharing with others. Why does it work? Because it involves the child and he/she learns how to set goals and make meaningful financial decisions.

STARCARE'S FINANCIAL LITERACY PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN

IS THERE A SPECIAL CHILD IN YOUR LIFE?

FINANCIAL WELLNESS is If you have a special child (or children) in your life – your own son or daughter, a grandchild, niece, nephew or godchild – we'd like to help you teach him or her some of the basic financial facts of life.

The goal of STARCARE's financial literacy program is to find ways to help our clients equip children with the financial fundamentals they will need to succeed later in life – to learn about saving, investing, and giving back. We are assembling a range of tools and resources that can be used in nearly any setting with children of any age, from coloring books to interactive media. We also facilitate stock gifts, college savings plans and other opportunities to learn about money.

If you'd like to know more, give us a call. Helping a child understand the importance of saving, spending wisely and sharing with others is the first step in acquiring good money management skills.

If you'd like to help a special child in your life, let's have a conversation.
