ITEM 3. DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

If there are legal or disciplinary events material to your evaluation of Ms. Sheldon, we are required to disclose all material facts regarding those events.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving Ms. Sheldon to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of Ms. Sheldon to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.

ITEM 4. OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

A. If Ms. Sheldon is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if Ms. Sheldon is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant ("FCM"), commodity pool operator ("CPO"), commodity trading advisor ("CTA"), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.

1. If a relationship between the advisory business and Ms. Sheldon's other financial industry activities creates a material conflict of interest with you, the SEC requires us to describe the nature of the conflict and generally how we address it.

Ms. Sheldon is a licensed insurance agent through various insurance companies. In such a capacity, she may offer insurance products and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of such a purchase. This presents a conflict of interest to the extent that she may recommend the purchase of an insurance product which results in a commission being paid to her as an insurance agent. Ms. Sheldon spends approximately 20% of her time on this outside activity. Clients are under no obligation to act upon any recommendations of Ms. Sheldon or effect any transactions through Ms. Sheldon if they decide to follow the recommendations.

2. If Ms. Sheldon receives commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products, including as a broker-dealer or registered representative, and including distribution or service ("trail") fees from the sale of mutual funds, we have to disclose this fact. If this compensation is not cash, we are required to explain what type of compensation Ms. Sheldon receives. We must explain that this practice gives Ms. Sheldon an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your needs.

Angela Park Sheldon is a Registered Representative with LPL Financial. In such a capacity, she may offer securities and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of securities transactions. This presents a conflict of interest to the extent that she recommends that a client invest in a security which results in a commission being paid to her. She spends approximately 50% of her time on this activity. Clients are under no obligation to act upon any recommendations of Ms. Sheldon or effect any transactions through Ms. Sheldon if they decide to follow the recommendations.

B. If Ms. Sheldon is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of Ms. Sheldon's income or involve a substantial amount of Ms. Sheldon's time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Ms. Sheldon's time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

Ms. Sheldon does not participate in any additional outside business that is considered substantial to disclose.

ITEM 5. ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Ms. Sheldon for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include Ms. Sheldon's regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

ITEM 6. SUPERVISION

We are required to explain how we supervise Ms. Sheldon, including how we monitor the advice Ms. Sheldon provides to you. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising Ms. Sheldon's advisory activities on behalf of our firm.

Mr. Bidenkap, President supervises and monitors Ms. Sheldon's activities on a regular basis to ensure compliance with our firm's code of ethics. Please contact Mr. Bidenkap if you have any questions about this brochure supplement at 310-906-0676.

ITEM 7. REQUIREMENTS FOR STATE-REGISTERED ADVISERS

In addition to Item 3 of this ADV Part 2B Brochure, Ms. Sheldon has not been involved in any arbitration claim, civil, self-regulatory organization, or administrative proceeding, or filed bankruptcy. Ms. Sheldon does not have any material disciplinary events to disclose.
