

Retirement Wellness Group LLC

Client Relationship Summary (Form CRS)

March 15, 2021

Retirement Wellness Group LLC (“RWG,” the “Firm,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) is an SEC registered investment adviser with our main office in Pasadena, California. Investment advisory fees and brokerage services fees differ, and it is important for you to understand the differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about investment advisers, broker-dealers, and investing.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

RWG offers our Retirement Plan Services to clients that are sponsors or other fiduciaries to retirement plans. As part of our Retirement Plan Services, we offer retirement plan consulting, discretionary investment management, and nondiscretionary investment advisory services. When you are a part of a non-discretionary service you will make the decisions regarding sales and purchases of investments. Portfolios that we provide discretionary investment management to are monitored on an ongoing basis. Depending on the level of service required, we may provide you with a combination of some or all of the services above. Certain participant services may be sub-contracted to our affiliate, Bridge Advisory LLC (“Bridge”). We will individually tailor our advice or discretion to meet the investment policies or other written guidelines adopted by the Sponsor.

For additional information on the services we provide and the clients we serve, please see our Form ADV Part 2A, Item 4, Item 7 and Item 13 at adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/297255.

Conversation Starter:

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

Generally, fees will be charged on an agreed upon fee schedule included in each retirement plan advisory agreement. The type and amount of fees charged to the client are negotiable and are generally based off of several factors including but not limited to the scope of service, size and complexity of the plan, number of plan participants, location of plan participants, estimated number of meetings, and other factors we deem to be relevant. Fees may be a flat dollar amount or charged based on assets under management, on a quarterly basis, either in advance, arrears, or determined according to policies of the plan’s recordkeeper. An assets under management arrangement means that the more assets in the plan, the more you may pay in fees, so we could have an incentive for you to increase the assets in the plan. Additionally, we may charge a flat fee which will generally not exceed 1% of the plan’s assets unless there are special circumstances warranting a higher fee. This fee may either be billed quarterly or as an initial deposit with the rest of the fee due upon completion of the project. You may pay additional fees including, but not limited to custodial fees, brokerage commissions, transaction fees, charges imposed directly by a mutual fund, index fund, or exchange traded fund, and certain deferred sales charges.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs that come from plan assets will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

For additional information about our fees, please see our Form ADV Part 2A, Item 4 and item 5 at adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/297255.

Conversation Starter:

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your Firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interests ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here is an example to help you understand what this means:

When providing either discretionary investment management services or non-discretionary investment advisory services to our clients, we may utilize one of our affiliated advisers in a subcontractor role. This is a conflict of interest as we are incentivized to use this affiliated entity at the expense of using an unaffiliated adviser who may charge a lower fee.

For additional details with respect to our potential conflicts of interest with retail clients, see our Form ADV Part 2A, Item 10 at adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/297255.

Conversation Starter:

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

How do your Financial Professionals make money?

Our Financial Professionals are compensated through their annual salaries as well as bonuses.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

No. Please go to Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research our financial professionals.

Conversation Starter:

- As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conducts?

Additional Information

For additional information regarding our firm or advisory services, please see visit the SEC's website adviserinfo.sec.gov and search CRD# 297255. Retail investors can also find a copy of our Form CRS at www.retirementwellnessgroup.com or by calling (949) 757-1799.

Conversation Starter:

- Who is my primary contact person? Is he or she a representative of an investment advisor or a broker dealer? Who can I talk to if I have concerns about how this person is treating me?