

Privacy Policy Information

Facts

What does The Wealth Enhancement Group, Inc. ("TWEG") do with your personal information?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the service that we provide to you. This information can include, but would not be limited to:

- your social security number and income;
- your address and date of birth; and
- your account balances and transactions.

How?

Financial companies typically need to share customers' personal information internally in order to run their everyday business - to process transactions, maintain or service customer accounts, and report to credit bureaus. In the section below, we list the reasons many financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons TWEG chooses to share your information; and whether you can limit this sharing.
