

Investment Strategies

Atlas Capital offers several Investment strategies to clients. Primarily we use actively managed portfolios encompassing mutual funds, exchange traded funds or money market funds. The investment strategy or strategies for a specific client are based on the client’s election of a strategy on the Management Strategy Instruction Form. A brief description of the core strategies are included below. For additional information about Atlas Capital Management and the strategies employed, please refer to the Firm Brochure (FORM ADV Part 2A) available at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. Inverse or Leveraged Market Strategies

Atlas may utilize long and short mutual funds and/or exchange traded funds that are designed to perform an: (1) Inverse relationship to certain market indices (at a rate of 1 or more times the inverse [opposite] result of the corresponding index) as an investment strategy and /or for the purpose of hedging against downside market risk; and (2) enhanced relationship to certain market indices (at a rate of 1 or more times the actual result of the corresponding index) as an investment strategy and/or for the purpose of increasing gains in an advancing market. There can be no assurance that any such strategy will prove profitable or successful. In light of these enhanced risks/rewards, a client may direct Atlas, in writing, not to employ any or all such strategies for his/her/their/its accounts.
